Rates Reduced.

Atlantic Lines Cutting the Steerage Passenger Rate.

First Steamer of the Dublin-Canada Line Starts June 15.

New Orders Issued Respecting Imported Canadian Cattle.

Wild Demonstrations of Joy Over the Rescue of the Imprisoned Tourists—Russia to Establish a Legation at the Vatican—Great Catholic Gathering—French Government Sustained.

Russia and the Vatican.

ROME, May 8.—The Russian Government has advised the Pope of its intention to establish a regular legation at the Vatican.

The Czarewitch Going to England.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 8.—It is reported that the Czarewitch will visit shortly the British court and meet the Princess Alix of Hess, to whom he is betrothed.

The Canada-Ulster Steamer Line.

DUBLIN, May 8.—The Irish Times announces that the Uister Steamship Company is about to commence direct steamship communication between Canada and Dublin. The first steamship in this trade will leave Montreal on June 15 next. She is the Teelin Head, of 1,071 tons register.

British Cabinet Meeting.

LONDON, May 8.—The Cabinet meeting to-day was to discuss the situation of the Government. The budget proposals are meeting with serious opposition, and the Government's position is said to be very unstable. The Conservatives assert that while the budget may pass the second reading, that it will not be carried through the committee stage.

Sustained.

PARIS, May 8.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day Premier Casimier Perriere demanded a vote of confidence on the question of prosecution of M. Soussaint. He declared he would regard the rejection of the Government's proposal to prosecute as an encouragement to Socialists and an insult to the authorities. A vote was taken, with the result that the Government was sustained—291 to 220.

Cut in Steerage Rates.

LONDON, May 8.—The International Navigation Company (American Line) will hereafter take steerage passengers from London to New York for 50 shillings, and from Liverpool and Queenstown via Southampton for 60 shillings. These reductions are made to meet the cut in passage rates of the continental steamship lines from Hamburg and other ports to 50 shillings.

New Order Respecting Canadian Cattle.

LONDON, May 6.—The Official Gazette publishes an order directing that Canadian cattle imported to England be marked at the ports of arrival and that they be isolated and killed at special abbatoirs. The carcasses of such cattle are not to be removed without the permission of the inspector of the board of husbandry. In addition the lungs of these cattle are not to be touched until examined by the inspectors. The order goes into force on May 15.

Canada and the British Customs Act.

LONDON, May 8.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Sydney Buxton, Under Colonial Secretary, in reply to C. E. H. Vincent, said that Canada and other British colonies has asked the Government to amend the Customs Act of 1873, with a view of enabling the colonies to conclude preferential arrangements with one another. The Government, he said, was considering the matter, but had not yet decided whether it was best to accede to the request.

Parisian Socialists.

PARIS, May 8.—The Socialist deputies issued this evening a manifesto which is intended to be an answer to the Chambers vote this afternoon. The manifesto says: "The intimidation attempted by the Government will not make us flinch. We shall do our duty and send our delegates to the Trignac works and elsewhere to follow the example of Comrade Toussaint. Deputies Baudin, Toussaint, Vaillaint and Miller, of the Socialist party, have started for Trignac. A Socialist demonstration is being arranged by the Paris Socialists for next Saturday."

Wore Queen Bess' Lace.

LONDON, May 8.—It is not often that a woman is able to array herself in a fabric

Please mention this paper.

Wednesday last the rescuers launched a box of provisions on the torrent, and this reached the imprisoned party safely and enabled them to keep up their strength.

GRATZ, May 8.—All the rescued tourists are confined to their beds. They say that all the time they passed in the cave they were surrounded by water. They shivered with cold and their clothes were heavy with mud and water. They tried for 48 hours to light a pile of drift wood, but everything in the cave was too wet to catch fire. The box of provisions which drifted in on Wednesday contained bread, meat, cheese and candles. They kept a candle burning until rescued.

A Big Catholic Gathering.

LONDON, May 8.—The meeting of Roman Catholics, over which Archbishop Vaughan presided at St. James' Hall last week, offered several points of novelty. Cardinal Newman, while still an Anglican at Oxford, expressed great horror of the Irish Catholics because they imitated the low ways of popular religions—had teas in chapels and festivals aboard steamers—but he himself lived to preside over teas of Roman Catholics at Birmingham, and Archbishop Vaughan has contrived a variety entertainment in St. James' Hall without any taint of vulgarity. The audience was a paying one, the proceeds benefiting the Catholic society, and the company, living up to the occasion, included all sorts and conditions of men and women, from a duke to an under-housemaid. Mme. Albani, who good-naturedly submitted to an encore, had a unique experience, for Archbishop Vaughan arose in all his red to offer his arm as she left the platform, making a new precedent in the annals of cardinalitial procedure, and one which the audience delightedly cheered.

An Exciting Trial.

BUDA-PESTH, May 8.—The opening of the trial on a charge of treason of 23 members of the executive committee of the Roumanian National party in Hungary at Klausenburg yesterday was attended with great excitement. The indictment against the men charges them with causing the publication of a document in several languages, and widely distributing the same, denouncing the act of union of Austria and Hungary. The circular also declares that the union of Transylvania with Hungary unjustly deprived the former of its autonomy. The beginning of the trial of these men was made the occasion of a monster demonstration of sympathy. Thirty thousand Roumanians assembled outside the town yesterday awaiting the word from their leaders to march into the town and protest against the prosecution of their compatriots. Three squadrons of hussars and three regiments of infantry were assigned to positions where they could guard all roads which would give the assemblage access to the town, and the Roumanians were commanded to disperse. This command was not obeyed, but as the crowds made no attempt to enter the town they were not fired upon. The Roumanians still hold their position and the troops are still guarding the roads. It is expected that serious trouble will occur before the Roumanians are dispersed. Last evening thousands of persons sympathizing with the men on trial marched through the streets of Klausenburg singing patriotic songs, hooting, howling and smashing windows until the police succeeded in scattering them.

Civil Marriage in Hungary.

BUDA-PESTH, May 8.—The House of Magnates will vote on the civil marriage bill to-morrow. Should they reject it the Wekerle Ministry will resign. The local newspapers have roused much indignation against Count Kalnoky by asserting that he is intriguing to defeat the bill.

The Maid of Orleans.

ORLEANS, France, May 8.—A large number of American and English visitors have arrived here in order to take part in the Joan of Arc celebrations. Many wreaths were placed yesterday upon the statue erected in honor of the Maid of Orleans. To-day is the anniversary of the day upon which Joan of Arc succeeded, in 1429, in raising the seige of Orleans. The city had been beseiged by the English under the Earls of Salisbury and Suffolk since Oct 12, 1428.

An Explanation.

LONDON, May 8.—The failure of the bimetallic movement in the House of Commons last Friday night when Samuel Smith's motion that the Government endeavor to secure a stable par of exchange for gold and silver by international agreement was counted out while Mr. Knox was in the middle of a speech supporting it, is explained by the secretary of the bimetallic league. He says its failue was not due to the apathy of the House toward the movement, but the fact that the motion having only second place at the sitting no division could be taken on it according to the rules.

A Dash for Liberty.

TORONTO, May 8.—On board the Hamilton train this morning in charge of a constable was Andrew Bowman, a young man on his way to Kingston to serve a three years' term for burglary. The train had scarcely come to a standstill when the prisoner, who had managed to slip a handcuff, made a bold dash for liberty through the crowd and out to York street. Constable Pague and the keeper overtook him in a vacant lot behind Doty's engine works, and he went east on the next train wearing a logging chain.

THE INGERSOLL TRAGEDY.

Conclusion of the Coroner's Inquest.

Names of Those Who Formed the "Rocking" Party—The Jury's Verdict "Non-Committal."

INGERSOLL, Ont., May 8.—The coroner's inquest in the stone-throwing case came up this evening before Coroner Dr. McLay. The witness, Mitchell, was re-examined and it was difficult to get a straight story from him. He denied having said the stones having fell so fast about him that he ran further west. He changed his evidence as to what the deceased had said after he and Everett got up to him.

Dr. Williams and Dr. Lucas, who made the post mortem examination, gave evidence as to the cause of death. They found only one wound, on the left side of the head, a little behind, and also a swelling below the jaw. There was a large cut of three by two and one-half inches pressing the brain. This wound was undoubtedly the cause of death.

The other witnesses examined were Everett, who, with Mitchell and McDermott, the deceased, were the leaders of the "rocking gang." Everett said he was within five feet of deceased when he was struck and fell, but could not say how or who struck him. The other members of the gang were Alex. McCaskill, Geo. Bell, Joseph McGrath and Joseph McSherry, who are from 12 to 19 years of age, and went up with the other three more as hangers-on to see the fun than as participants.

The jury retired about 1 o'clock, and after two hours and a half returned with the following verdict:

"We find that the deceased received injuries which caused his death through being hit by a stone, but by whom the stone was thrown the evidence does not show. We also find that the parties who went with the express purpose of breaking the law are accessories before the fact".

It was sworn in evidence that Allward, the prisoner, had been hit three times, one of the stones knocking off his hat. When he stooped to pick it up he found the stone and threw it, which, he said, did not strike the ground, and he had seen someone fall.

THE WILSON TARIFF.

House Democrats Not Pleased With the Senate's Changes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8. — The changes made in the Senate committee on the tariff bill are not acceptable to the House. The Democratic members of the ways and means committee who framed the Wilson Tariff Bill and other leading representatives do not conceal their disappointment that the House measure should have been so materially modified. A general canvass of the House to-day disclosed no intention on the part of the Democrats to resist the Senate changes in an arbitrary spirit, but it developed the fact that the House Democrats generally were entirely satisfied with the bill as it went to the Senate and no attempt was made to conceal their regret that it should not have been returned to them in practically its original shape.

Wheat Dirt Cheap.

CHICAGO, May 8.—The steady depreciation in prices of wheat resulted in the cereal touching the lowest point in the history of the trade to-day—56⅝c for May and 58½c for July. There was no excitement accompanying the decline, and at the bottom the market showed recuperative powers, rallying and closing ⅝ of a cent above the low point.

Found Guilty.

Trial of Coxey, Browne and Jones Concluded.

The Trio Convicted, but Jones Acquitted of the Second Count.

Coxey Ready to Leave After He Makes a Speech to One of the Houses—He Disclaims Connection With the Other "Industrials" Who Are Bound to Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—At 3:40 p.m. the jury in the Coxey case returned to court, finding Coxey, Browne and Jones guilty on the first count of the information of carrying a banner in the capitol grounds contrary to law, and Coxey and Browne guilty and Christopher Columbus Jones not guilty on the second count of trespassing on the grass. Pending a motion for a new trial the defendants were released on $500 bonds.

Representative Hudson, of Kansas, who was Coxey's counsel before the police court, authorizes the statement that Coxey proposes leaving Washington with his followers as soon as he secures a hearing from one of the two Houses of Congress. An effort is being made to have the committee of the Senate, to whom his Good Roads Bill was referred, permit him to appear before them and make an argument in the support of his bill. If the Senate refuses, an effort will be made to secure a hearing from one of the House committees. This being accomplished, Coxey will have no further business in Washington, and will leave at once. Mr. Hudson says Coxey has no affiliation with the other commonweal forces now journeying to Washington. He has had no correspondence with them and does not know them or their purposes. He will not attempt again to speak from the steps of the capitol, nor will he attempt in any way to contravene the laws.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 8.—The two factions of the Randall army of industrials met with treatment here this morning that they did not relish. The city authorities met them at the city limits and forbade them to enter the city, and Gen. Randall, his son and two of his lieutenants were arrested and placed in jail. The citizens took pity on the starving army and sent out provisions to where it is camped, a mile south of the city, pending the release of the leaders. The two sections of the army are still on unfriendly terms, and marched from Westville about a third of a mile apart.

SPRAGUE, Wash., May 9.—This part of the State is filled with Coxeyites and their ranks are being constantly swelled. They have been interfering with the Northern Pacific Railway. One of them hid on the trucks of a cattle train last night, setting the air brakes when the train arrived here, preventing it being rushed through. A gang of his fellows boarded the cars, but the stock has been ordered unloaded, and the officials say they will not carry the men.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 8.—It is the intention of Gen. Kelly to start the flotilla of flatboats bearing his army, now swelled to 1,400 men, down the Des Moines River to-morrow. Ample provisions have been furnished the army for one day, and reports from points along the river indicate that the men will be cared for.

PUEBLO, Col., May 8.—Gen. J. S. Sanders and his army of commonwealers, who have been encamped on the "vacant lot" here for several days, depared for Washington to-night in a highly sensational manner. At 6:30 o'clock they seized a switch engine standing on the Denver and Rio Grande tracks, moved it up to the Missouri switch and backed down on ten empty coal cars, and started east. A warrant was sworn out for the leaders, and a pose of 50 men started for Olney, where the legion is delayed by the action of the Missouri Pacific, by dumping an engine and freight car off the track. It is believed that the commonwealers stopped their train between here and Boone, and tore up the track to stop pursuit. A hand car has been sent ahead of the pose to prevent an accident.

DARING DYNAMITERS.

Convicts Attempt to Blow Up the Michigan State Prison.

JACKSON, Mich., May 8.—An attempt was made last night to blow up the prison with dynamite. As the convicts who are locked in the new west cell block were being marched to their cells from an evening meeting, three of them—Edward Huntley, serving a term of twenty years for burglary, John Deeman, serving fifteen years for murder in the second degree, and Arthur Lawrence, serving fifteen years for burglary—made a break from the ranks. One of them seized the guard and another sprang up into a window and attempted to light a fuse connecting with a dynamite bomb. An alarm was given and deputies arrived in time to prevent any damage and to quell the disturbance.

Re Medical Exams.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Dear Sir,—Will you please answer the following questions through your paper? 1. What subjects are necessary for the medical matriculation of London Medical School, and where are these exams written? 2. Are the supplemental examinations of any other college recognized at the London Medical School? 3. If a student having passed a supplemental examination of any other Canadian college attend the London Medical School and pass his examinations, can he practice in Canada or Ontario? By answering the absve you will greatly oblige,

A READER.

Strathroy, May 3.

[ANSWER—1. The subjects much the same as those necessary to take a second-class certificate, with the addition of Latin. The examinations are written in London. 2. Yes; all medical school examinations are. 3. No; the Ontario Council have an examination of their own. Dr. Pine, Toronto, can give you any information on that head.]
