AT FLEETWOOD THACK.

New York, Sept. 1.—The threatening weather to-day had no effect upon the enthusiastic admirers of the light harness borses. The first race was called on time, and the horses got away on even terms. Blue Sign, Rota Wilkes and Vitello got into a scrimmage, in which Blue Sign was cut down tery hadly, and crippled for life on the forward foot. In the meantime Budd Doble and Kelly were fighting it out with Manager and Flying Jib, and at the last half-mile Doble tried to go through next the rail when Kelly drew in on him, thinking he would pull his horse up. Instead, Doble ran the pacer up to Kelly's sulky and deliberately slashed him with his whip, causing an ugly wound on Kelly's face. The latter then opened up the space and Doble tried to gain, but Kelly held him up to the stretch, when Doble used his whip to good advantage on Manager and landed him a winner by half a length. The behaviour of the two drivers did not satify the judges so they decided to fine Doble $100, and Kelly had to be satisfied with fifth place in the heat. This same heat was made in the fastest time ever made for a half mile on the Fleetwood track.

The Hartford purse for 3-year-olds only brought two horses to the post, Margrave and Double Cross. The former won in straight heats.

SPARRING AT HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Sept. 1.—An immense crowd assembled in exhibition rink this evening to witness sparring contests. The first was a three-round bout between Jack O'Brien, of Halifax, and Stone, of Boston, and resulted in honors being casy. This was followed by rather a one-sided bout between two British soldiers. Then Cally Jordan, midale weight champion of Nova Scotia, and Jim Lannon, of Boston, and side in the rand argregate. The bandaris is a soldiers. Then Cally Jordan, middle weight champion of Nova Scotia, and Jim Lannon, of Boston, and Gunner of Heavier. This was succeeded by a lively bout between McCormeck, an Australian, and Lotes, an Eaglishman, the latter getting rather the best of it. A three-round contest was fought between the comments of the garrison. It was business from start to finish. The fight in the refined when the police were about interfering when time was called. MITCHELL, Oat, Sept. 1.—The races here to clay were keenig younteeted. Simple of pages and september to the page of the page o

Two or three faded wreaths rest upon the grave; one of them (placed by the loving hands of an American) has lain there since the last anniversary of Mary's death and of a composition of the exquisite and impassioned lines. "To Mary in Heaven." The devoted girl has here "mouldered in silent dust" for more than a century. During half the period her grave was unsought and neglected; now it is found necessary to protect it from the depredations of tourists by an iron railing. Fifty years ago resident lovers of Burns procured by subscription the erection of a monument over the mound. It is of marble, twelve feet in height. It bears a sculptured medallion representing in relief Burns and Mary with clasped hands, plighting their vows. Beneath is the inscription:

Erected Over the Grave of
HIGHLAND MARY,

Circumstance.

Drayron, Ont., Sept. I.—Last night H.
Ball & Sons, of Ayton, Ont., were arrested by Constable Flath for alleged cattle stealing, cattle belonging to Jaz. Walsh, near Durham having strayed from his farm. The prisoners drove the cattle through Harriston yesterday, and offered them for sale at Teviotdale Fair. Cattle buyer J. Dowling, of Drayron, hought them, subject to being Teviotalae Fair. Cattle buyer J. Dowling, of Drayton, bought them, subject to being delivered here. The prisoners drove the cattle on through here. Meanwhile someone advised Dowling the cattle were stolen. He at once communicated with the supposed owner at Durham, who came this morning and identified them. The prisoners have been remanded for hearing.
