-The first of a series of sermons on "Life's History" was delivered last drawn. evening by Rev. C. S. G. Boone in the Mrs. Street Baptist Church. "Breaking Away from Home Ties" was the subject, the text being St. Luke, The discourse dealt with the Prodigal Son's demand for his share of his father's goods, and his departure from the parental home. Rev. Mr. Boone strongly condemned the sin of selfishness, saying that he believed it was the cause of more broken hearts, more misery and the cost of more souls than even the liquor traffic and similar evils, as it was, in fact, the tap-root of all evil. The choir sang several anthems in a very pleasing manner, Miss Lizzie Russell taking the solo parts. Miss Pearl Ashwell presided at the organ. At the close of the service a young lady was baptized.

-The services at the Wellington Street Methodist Church yesterday were attended with much interest. Rev. Mr. Collycott, who is supplying the pulpit during the illness of the pastor, Rev. R. D. Hamilton, is a stirring evangelist, and his sermons were very powerful and highly appreciated. In the morning his discourse was taken from John, chapted xi, verses 12 and prove of much interest: 13, "Feeding the Five Thousand," and in the evening from St. John, chapter v., verses, 6, 7, 8, 9, "The Impotent The music in the evening was especially fine. The choir is rapidly oming to the front under the efficient leadership of Mr. H. Ruthven Mc-Donald. The pastor, Rev. R. D. GOOD-BYE. The sisters of Victoria Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, of this city, met at the G. T. R. station on Saturday afternoon, to bid farewell to one of the todge's esteemed members, Mrs. Tan-ner, who is leaving this city to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Blakemore, in Hamilton. Just as the train came in an address was read to her, expressing the regret the sisters felt at parting, and asking her acceptance of a beautiful gold locket on their behalf. Mrs. Tanner feelingly replied, thanking the sisters for their kindness and hoping they might all meet again. Good-byes were exchanged as the train moved out.

END OF THE SEASON COURTESIES The members of the London Bowling Club have an efficient hard-working officer in the person of their secretary

Mr. James S. Macdougall, and judging by a pleasant little affair that oc-curred Friday, they appreciate his ef-forts on behalf of the club's success. On behalf of the club President A. H. Beddome, presented Mr. Macdougall with a handsome leather chair, and told him if the buttons on it were twenty-dollar gold pieces the present would be far too small. He extended to Mr. Macdougall the kindliest feelings of his fellow-members. Rev. Canon Dann added further happy re-marks, and Mr. Macdougall replied

The four silver salvers won by Messrs. Ed. Masuret, J. S. Macdougall, A. N. Udy and Harold Southam were presented to them.

As a closing match for the season, four rinks, captained by Vice-President Mattinson, and four others captained by Mr. John Stevenson, chairman of the bowling committee, played a match Friday afternoon, the latter winning by seven shots. KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

JUVENILE COURT. At juvenile court this morning a 13-year-old boy was tried for stabbing another boy. After a lengthy hearing a settlement was arrived at.

The amalgamation of Columbia Lodge, No. 37, and Myrtle Lodge, No. 2, of the Knights of Pythias, has been successfully effected. Columbia, which met in East London, had a membership of 35, and the difficulty it had experienced for a long time was the absence of knights from the city, making the attendance at the meetings very small. Myrtle had 80 members, and although considerably stronger, financially and numerically, it viewed the amalgamation favorably. Columbia had over $300 in the treasury, which was handed over to Myrtle. The new lodge will be known as Myrtle, No. 2, and it will meet in the Knights of Pythias Hall, corner of Dundas and Clar-ence streets. The committee which arranged the details of the amalgamation comprised Messrs. John Dean, R. Cadwallader and Ed. Gaipin, of Myrtle Lodge, and E. H. Johnston, D. Cran-ston and Robert Bonney, of Columbia. FRENCH-MURCH.

The residence of Mr. George Murch, Parkhill, was the scene of a very pretty and fasionable wedding on Sept. 26, when his third daughter, May, was united in wedlock to Mr. Thomas French, of Ferguson, Ont. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the ceremony was performed under a beautiful white arch, in the presence of a large num-ber of friends from Detroit, St. Thomas, London, Granton and Lobo. Rev. J. I. Manthorne, Baptist clergyman, officiated. The bride wore a beautiful white organdie dress, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Sadie, who also wore white organdie, and carried pink roses; while Mr. Fred Eichenberger, of Delaware, acted as best man. Miss Lilla Phillips, of London, played the wedding march, and after the ceremony an informal reception was held. The guests then adjourned to the dining-room, where the wedding dinner was served, after which the happy couple left for the east amid showers of rice and good wishes.

POLICE COURT. At this morning's police court, G. T. Burt, three draymen, with trespassing 487, as follows: on G. T. R. property, by soliciting custom on the station platform. All were let go on suspended sentence. Burt was reproved by the police magistrate for addressing insolent remarks to Constable Logan in the court room.

Patrick Kenny and Jennie Jones were arrested about 3 o'clock this morning, driving around in an intoxicated condition. Kenny was fined $5 and $2 50 costs, or 21 days in jail. The woman was let go on suspended sentence.

Sentence was suspended in the case of William Colley, the Richmond street tailor charged with stealing a coat from Chris Hevey. The coat had been restored to its owner. George Sinnott was fined $10 and

THOS. SABIN, of Eglington, says: "I have removed ten corns from my feet with Holloway's Corn Cure." Reader, go thou and do likewise. John Nichols accidentally cut off the index finger of his left hand while working on the G. T. R. at Windsor on Saturday. "IT IS A GREAT PUBLIC BENE-FIT."—These significant words were used in relation to Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, by a gentleman who had thoroughly tested its merits in his own case-having been cured by it of lameness of the knee of three or four years' standing. It never fails to remove soreness as well as tameness, and is an incomparable pulmonic and correc-

The executors of the estate of the late Hart A. Massey, of Toronto, have recently paid $50,000 on account of a bequest of $100,000 to Mount Allison College, Sackville, N. B.
