CHICAGO HOLD-UP: The Mysterieus Behavior of a Rus TWO MURDERED sian Girl Tramp.

Russian. The girl does not speak independently, but repeats only, like an automaton, everything that is said to her, and minics unconsciously all the move-ments of others. When asked who she was, where she lived, whether she had a passport, whether she wanted to eat, etc., she answered constantly by re peating the same questions, and, doing so, looked straight at the inquirer.

If one laughs, she laughs also; if anybody raises his arm, she does the same. She repeated questions put to German, English, French and other
