Scanlon is Easy for National World's Champions.

Cham Now, I was in the Trophy Match and in the Final Round, Yes, I had reached the final game, and still I held my ground.
But I'd fought hard to get there, and there I meant to stay, For I'd trimmed many a champion that I met in the fray.

Among that winning number that I had turned aside Were mighty Trophy winners, and some were Toronto's pride. Well, Billy Jackson had his turn, and Well, Billy Jackson had his turn, and also Dick Gosnell,
With Abbott, Ed. Weld, Doc Del Marr and poet-skip Waddell.
My runners were astounding, and my draws were always there,
While my opponents' cannon balls just merely fanned the air.
The Final was an awful game, as close as close could be as close could be.

And witnesses said we'd have lost if it had not been for me.

The last end came—they lay three shots I drew the first and won—
And then I jumped, rolled out of bed—alas, my dream was done.
