The Poultry Show.

There are 5,003 poultry entries, and 350 exhibitors from all parts of the United States and Canada. Many of the best-known breeders are represented by their choicest birds, and the show is an unusually fine one. The Barred Rocks, White Wyandottes and White Leghorns are the largest classes, with about 200 entries in each of them. There is also an enormous showing of bantams—about 500 entries in all—and representing about 500 entries in the each of them. There is also of London, are big graded as official veterinary. The exhibit of swine attracts great attention. W. E. Wright, of Glanworth, has a fine lot of Chester Whites. The bacon hop class is better filled, and with a finer lot of animals this year than it has ever been in the past. These are being judged when alive by D. C. Flatt, of Millgrove; J. C. Nichol, of Hubrey, while the carcasses will be judged by Wm. Jones, of Zenda. The grades and crosses are classes in the swine department which are also very well filled. They will be judged by Mr.

The Dairy Stables Filled.

The fine new dairy stables are already filled, although when erected last year it was thought they would be large enough to meet the requirements of the fair for the next ten years. Oxford County is the best represented portion of the province in the dairy department. There are more exhibitors from Oxford than from any other county. Of the three leading breeds of dairy cattle, Hol-The Dairy Stables Filled. three leading breeds of dairy cattle, nor-steins, Jerseys and Ayrshires, the Hol-steins are the most numerous.
