Nassau Lodge To Have Drill Corps

Breaking away from precedent, the Nassau Lodge, 2170, of the Loyal Orange Order, is to have a drill corps. Orange drill corps are an innovation in this district, and the Nassau Lodge, the first to have one, is one of the strongest lodges in the district.

Arrangements for the drill corps have been completed and are now in the hands of the committee selected for the purpose—Worshipful Master W. A. Langford, W. Lytle, R. A. Carter, Rev. S. E. McKegney, Past Master H. J. Bennett and others. It is proposed to start work in the fall and to make the corps one of the strongest organizations of its kind in the city.
