There is practically no change in the situation at the Monmorency, Q., cotton mills, which are still closed, and from present appearances there is no telling when work will be resumed, as both sides seem determined to hold out, and little effect is being made to redress the grievances. The policy of the mill management is P., will try a fall with Mr. evidently one of waiting, and in the meantime many families are arriving at the falls from the outlaying district to positions in the mills, and reo contest East York against W. F. place some of those who have left for the United States when work is resumed.
