The opening of navigation has been the of the English mails, which goes into effect next week. There are two mails per week via New York, closing here at 9.30 p.m., and the Allen mail via Rimouski, closing on Fridays at 5.30 p.m. The several steamers leave this side of the Atlantic on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; and it is to best suit these departures that the above arrangement is made.

toms officials having been nootwinket by that method of conveyance. It is now considered certain that many flasks of nitro-glycerine similar to that found in Egan's garden in Birmingham have been conveyed to this country. Standing of Kepublican Candidates. The reported preferences of the repub-lican delegates so far elected to the national convention are as follows: Colonizing the Congo. BERLIN, May 2.—The German colonial society have adopted resolutions approv-ing a plan for the internationalization of the Congo region, and urging Bismarck to support the project. Hattonal convention are as follows: Arthur, 259; Blaine, 246; Logan, 55; Ed-munds, 60; Sherman, 23; Hawley, 12; Gresham, 6; Fairchild, 4, making a total of 665. Delegates to the number of 155 have 'yet to be heard from. The total vote of the convention will be 820, so that 411 will be necessary for a choice.

The Alleged Bond Forgery. Frances Lewis was in the police court yesterday on the charge of forging a £1000 sterling 5 per cent debenture of the dominsterling 5 per cent debenture of the domin-ion of Canada of the issue of 1860. He was defended by Dr. McMichael and Frank Arnoldi, and pleaded not guilty. A hear-ing was set down for May 7. Mr. Lewis was admitted to bail, himself in $5000 and W. T. O'Reilly and Mr. Rowsell (of Row-sell & Hutchinson) in $2500 each. greeted the amateurs of Toronto last night

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. -Petley & Petley, the great clothing dry goods, millinery and carpet house of dry goods, millinery and carpet nouse of Toronto, are driving a roaring trade and find business improving every day. Their sales last month exceed the corresponding month of last year by $4160.36 and the March sales exceed those of March 1883, by over $1,000. This shows that nothing succeeds like success and indicates the re-turn of good times.

Pilgrim's Progress. James Pilgrim yesterday went on a pil-grimage through Noble Ward with a small retinue of Italians. He progressed from one saloon to another till both he and the one saloon to another till both he and the sons of sunny Italy were so, so, so to speak. He then began to "bate the hay-thens" right and left and had to be taken into custody.

WHAT DO YOUTHINK OF THAT MY CAT?

The fire is warm, my pipe is lit, The curtains drawn and all is snug. With pussy in the big arm chair And Towser snoozing on the rug. I had a dream the other night That I had ceased to shovel fog, Had turned a Dinahmighter grim, And set the country side agog : What do you think of that, my cat ? What do you think of that my dog? I dreamt I blew that ancient pile, Ontario's halls of parliam So very high and far that they To Jericho or elsewhere went. The hole it left behind became Δ dark and deep and noisome bog, Where urchins young for suckers fished Or speared the pensive polly wog; What do you think of that my cat? What do you think of that my dog ?

The scene was changed ; I saw a pile, The scone was changed ; Isaw a pile, A marble-fronted pile arise, A hall of parliament, indeed, High domed majestic to the skies. Now wasn't that a wondrous dream. For one who never takes 1 is grog? It blow if bp, as sure as fats, And give the government a jog: What do you think of that my dog? -The EM Several communications were read and

The report of Mr. Carter, Mr. Aldridge, chairman of the legislative committee, said the meeting in St. Andrew's hall Saturday night was to be of citizens generally with the view of strengthening the position taken by the council in the question of assisted and pauper immigration. The report of the legislative committee was unanimously adopted. On motion of Mr. Moor, the secretary was instructed to write the mayor, that was instructed to write the mayor, that the working classes ought to be repre-sented on the board of health. The council adjourned at 11 o'clock.

NORDY'S LITTLE LAMB.

Nordy-I see that the storekeepers are put-ting live animals in their windows, there is a lion in one and a horse in another and so on. Strategy-Why not put one in your King street window, a Federal bull for instance. Nor'y-My friend you know they are all too sick; but if I could catch a bear like Kox would chain him up in the window. Strategy—A young lamb with a good fleece would be better. Nordy-R ght you are, my friend. But ze trouble is to get ze leetel lamb. Strategy-On, we'll borrow Marry's on man Nordy-You have a great head. Strike

WHY DO YOU DO IT?

Oh, bad small boy why do you thus This portly preacher man insult By hitting him with peoble stones Cast by thy wicked catapult?

And thus the bad small boy replied, And thus the bad small boy reach: As he got far beyond is y reach: "Three times each Sunday mother makes Me go to hear that preacher preach!" — The Khan.

I WISH.

I wish I was a housewife, With nose all rosy red, With petticoats tucked nicely up,

An apron round my head; Oh, then Id get a garden rake

And start to clean the yard; I'd hoke and poke, and rake and scrape, And work so very hard.

I'd get the rubbish in a pile, The bones, the defunct cat.

The hoop-skirts, bottles, oyster cans, The long discarded hat. And then I'd wait my lord's return,

A hot, triumphant one, And while he rastled with his hash Id brag of what Id done.

-The Khar NONE BUT THE BRAVE.

[A lady has offered to furnish £5000 for the elief of Gordon at Khartoum]. Another proof that women love The gallant hearts that do and dare;

How true the olden saying is: None but the brave de erve the fair ? WARMER WEATHER.
