Editor World: Your clippias from The Talegram of Saturday that summer travel is not epiting toward Toronto this season, also the proper expects to be supported by Canadians, and yet you seem to delight in falsifying the real facts and try to throw the blame on Toronto. If The World or Talegram would despatch some of their young mon to make proper enquiries of our American cousins why they are not witting our dity this geased, they would get this answer: We says travel extensively during presidential year but would despatch some of their young mon to make proper enquiries of our American cousins why they are not witting our dity this geased, they would get this answer: We says travel extensively during presidential year but witten and energy at home, interesting ourselves more pertucularly in the couning in siction; which we claim our substituting you Canadian neopole.

This, sir, is the main reason why we are not one than the interest of the proper of the prop
