Exchange—Foreign Markets Dull.

Wednesday Evening, May 21.

The local stock market continues dull with few transactions. Commerce sold at 12756, Montreal at 222, Ontario at 120, and Imperial at 15516, all in small lots. This was at the movning Board and in the afternoon the same prices prevailed. Con sumers' Gas stock changed hands at 17834. There will be little or no activity in stocks for the next few weeks for the two reasons that the hext few weeks for the two reasons that the Queen's Birthday and the provincial elections are both close at hand. The particular feature of the present stock market is the indifference of holders of bank stocks to part with their shares.
