

Kenton, Simon, his encounters with Tecumseh, 37-9.

Kickapoos, the, 50, 65, 73, 86.

Lake Erie, battle of, 127-33.

Laulewasikaw, Tecumseh's brother, 4; as the 'Prophet' co-operates with Tecumseh in an Indian confederacy, 46-48. See Tenskwatawa.

Lewis, General Andrew, in command at battle of Point Pleasant, 12-13.

Lewis, Colonel, taken prisoner by the British at Frenchtown, 114.

Little Turtle, a Miami chief, 35, 36, 41, 44.

Lloyd, Captain, his description of Tecumseh, 70-1.

Logan, a Mingo chief, 11; his friendship for the whites, 15-16.

McClelland, Robert, his encounter with Tecumseh, 37.

Macdonell, Lieut.-Col., with Brock at Detroit, 105, 107.

Maguaga, battle of, 94-8.

Mandans, the, 29-30.

Methoataske, Tecumseh's mother, 3, 6, 17.

Miamis, the, 41, 44.

Miller, Colonel James, American leader at Maguaga, 94-98.

Mingoes, the, 8, 13.

Mississinewa, council of, 84-5.

Mohicans, the, 8.

Moraviantown, battle of, 146-150.

Muir, Major, British leader at Maguaga, 94-8; at Fort Meigs, 117.

Ohio, governor of, and the Indians, 55, 61-2.

Ottawas, the, 41, 44, 49.

Panther, an Indian chief, 59, 61.

Pennsylvania, and the Indians, 9.

Perry, Captain Oliver, defeats the British on Lake Erie, 123, 127-33; in conjunction with Harrison, 140-1.

Pine Creek, battle of, 34-5, 78.

Piqua, Tecumseh's birthplace, 3, 16, 20; destroyed, 21-3; rebuilt on the Great Miami, 24, 33-4.

Point Pleasant, Indians defeated at, 12-13.

Pontiac, the Ottawa chief, 1, 45.

Potawatomis, the, 41, 44, 55, 65, 74, 85, 94.

Procter, General, 110, 126; defeats Americans at Frenchtown, 112-15; his failures at Fort Meigs, 115-19, 120-1; and at Fort Stephenson, 121-2; and Tecumseh's appeal, 133-137; retreats from Amherstburg after British defeat on Lake Erie, 139-45; takes to flight at Moraviantown, 146-149; his bad generalship, 138, 140, 146.

Puckeshinwau, Tecumseh's father, 3, 6, 11; killed, 13.

Reynolds, Major, his retreat from Frenchtown, 111-12.

Roundhead, a Wyandot chief, 59, 61; honoured by Tecumseh, 109, 115.