

Sparkles.

No artist can compare with Jack Frost in executing a frieze.

"Did you ever think what you would do if you had the Duke of Westminster's income?" Village Pastor: "No; but I have sometimes wondered what the Duke would do if he had mine."

THE beauty of having a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in the house is that you are prepared for the "worst," Croup or Cholera. The Pain-Killer is a sovereign remedy.

"WELL, may I hope then, dearest, that at some time I may have the happiness of making you my wife?" "Yes, I hope so, I am sure," she replied. "I am tired of suing fellows for breach of promise."

O'FLANNIGAN (just promoted from day labourer to section boss on the railroad): "Moike Dooley, come into the shanty; I discharge you at once, not that I have anything agin you, but I have the atorty."

"WHAT is good for a cold?" is a question often asked, but seldom satisfactorily answered. We can answer to the satisfaction of all, if they will follow our advice and try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, a safe, pleasant and certain throat and lung healer. Sold by all druggists.

RICH uncle to his physician: "So you think there is hope for me?" "Not only that, but I can assure you that you are saved." "Very well. I wish you would inform my nephew, but break the news gently to him."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

For Alcoholism.

Dr. C. S. ELLIS, Wabash, Ind., says: "I prescribed it for a man who had used intoxicants to excess, for fifteen years, but during the last two years has entirely abstained. He thinks the Acid Phosphate is of much benefit to him."

SIR DIGBY (going round to the stable, finds his new coachman's children playing about, and introduces himself): "Well, my little man, and do you know who I am?" Boy: "Yes; you're the man as rides in father's carriage."

At the close of a long, rambling and pointless speech by a delegate in the last General Assembly, the moderator remarked, sotto voce, that the speaker reminded him of an old ram he once saw, which backed so far that he was out of breath before he got ready to butt.

COUGHS AND COLDS.—Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, etc., should try BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, a simple and effectual remedy. They contain nothing injurious, and may be used at all times with perfect safety.

WHEN General Sherman was at Fort Bayard, he was asked by an Indian chief for an old field-piece that stood out in the enclosure. "Can't have it," was the laconic answer. "Why not?" "What do you want with it; to kill soldiers?" "Soldiers! Ugh! no. Use 'em kill cowboys. Kill soldiers with club."

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.

TEACHER: "What are the names of the seven days of the week?" Boy: "Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday." Teacher: "That's only six days. You have missed one. When does your mother go to church?" Boy: "When papa buys her a new hat."

We asked you to "Watch this Space." Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine, can furnish you at home. Either sex; all ages. Asa P. Rand, Westboro, Mass., writes us that he made $60 profit in a single day. THERE is a story told of Drs. Chalmers and Stewart, who argued on the street corner on some knotty point of theology, with Scottish pertinacity, until it was time to separate, when one of them remarked: "You will find my views very well put in a certain tract," of which he gave the title. Upon which, to his surprise, his antagonist replied: "Why, I wrote that tract myself!"

We, the undersigned Wholesale Grocers of the city of Hamilton, handling the Pure Gold Baking Powder and other standard goods manufactured by the Pure Gold Manufacturing Co., Toronto, certify that their goods are giving us entire satisfaction, and that our dealings have been quite satisfactory.

It is with regret we have learned of such malicious tampering with their free samples of Baking Powder, evidently for the purpose of injuring their business.
