WORK FOR 1894. - What are you going to do in the New Year? This is an important question for every Y. P. S. C. E. at this time. There is plenty to be done, no excuse can be found for idleness, but just what are you going to do? A few suggestions may be helpful. How about your church prayer-meetings? and that cottage meeting, is it getting your support? And then there are the missions of your church, what interest have you taken in them? And temperance work how many of your members are pledged to this grand cause? Are you upholding your pastor in his work by your united prayers? How many souls owe their salvation, in God's grace, to your efforts? These questions answered satisfactorily during 1894 will mean much blessing to yourself and to others. May God help you.

INTERESTING ITEMS. - A most interesting paper by Father Endeavor Clark, on "The Responsibility of Young People and their Societies for Missions," appears in the current number of the Missionary Review of the World. Every C. E. should read it. The Canadian Presbyterian Church has 198 missionaries in foreign lands. Cannot we Endeavorers make it the round 200 this year?

PRAYER MEETING TOPIC, JANUARY 21ST. - The Topic for January 21st is a temperance one. The passages are found in Rom. xiv. 13-23; xv. 1-3. The question suggested to us by our subject is, in what am I my brother's keeper? The personal responsibility of each one for his companion at school or in business should be enforced. It is a solemn thought that every one we meet in life is on his way to either Heaven or Hell. What are we doing to see that they are travelling the right road?

INTERESTING ITEM. - Every time the devil makes a hypocrite he has to admit that nothing pays so well as being good. Expectancy is the measure of our faith. You pray in the morning, "Lord, give me the victory over temper;" then by and by you get in a passion and say, "I can't help it I knew I would!" Doesn't look like you had great faith in God's keeping power does it? "Endeavour don'ts down to the Corners," published I think by Wardlaw Lock, New York, is one of the most interesting, amusing and helpful books we have read for along time. Get it, and enjoy it for yourself. S.J.D.C.
