

fects of antikamnia in the treatment of various headaches, and to warrant the following conclusions I have reached with regard to its use, viz. :—

- (a) It is a specific for almost every kind of headache.
- (b) It acts with wonderful rapidity.
- (c) The dosage is small.
- (d) The dangerous after-effects so commonly attendant on the use of many other analgesics are entirely absent.
- (e) It can therefore be safely put into the hands of patients for use without personal supervision.
- (f) It can be very easily taken, being practically tasteless."
