Two little girls in blue—Ada and Clara.

CATERER'S picnic to West Selkirk tomorrow.

HARVESTING is now almost general throughout the province.

To-Day is the Feast of the Assumption. It is being observed in all the Catholic churches.

Mr. H. A. RUSSELL left on Sunday to spend a week with his mother at Minneapolis.

The Catholic Temperance Union of America, begins a new year under the most assuring auspices.

A BURNING chimney at St. Mary's academy gave the fire brigade a run on Monday afternoon.

The secular priests of the diocese closed their annual retreat at St. Boniface on Saturday, Aug. 4.

How many people would be mute if they were forbidden to speak well of themselves and evil of others.

Now you're married, you must obey. You must be true to all you say; You must be loving, kind and good And help your husband chop the wood—

Young man, don't be afraid to make your way in the world. Remember the richest man living was born without a penny in this pocket.

Owing to the stress on our columns this week we are forced to hold over several articles of interest which will appear in our next issue.

A NEW YORK undertaker displays, among other funeral emblems, a clock made of immortelles. The time piece bears the inscription. "The sad hour."

REV. A. A. CHERRIER Parish Priest of the Immaculate Conception Church, left yesterday morning on a trip to Montreal and New Brunswick. The rev. father expects to be absent one month.

Mr. J. W. HENIG, manager for W. Clifford, general merchant of Austin, Man., was in the city on Friday last and returned home the same day. Kindly make us a longer visit the next time Joe. It's a son.

PEOPLE should be on their guard against a new counterfeit $2.00 silver certificate which has lately been put into circulation. It bears the vignette of William Windom, check letter C. series of 1891. The note is printed from a wood engraving and is a poor counterfeit.

Mr. A. O'KELLY, contractor of Everett, Wash. was in the City on Wednesday last on a holiday trip to eastern points where he will meet Mrs. O'Kelly. He is a brother of Mr. C. O'Kelly of this City, and on his return trip intends to spend a few days in the City.

THE A. P. A. has got out a new anti-Catholic cartoon. It represents our nuns as slaves and alleges that they make and beg about $10,000,000 a year. If they are slaves, why don't they leave the convent and be free—the doors are open for their egress all day long. If they receive ten millions a year or half that sum, they'd be rich whereas hardly one of their orphan asylums, or hospitals, or refuges, or schools, or homes for the aged poor is out of debt. All the money they get goes to works of mercy.

MISS THERESA HYLAND, of Broadview, N. W. T. is in the city on a visit to relatives.

HON. T. M. DALY, minister of the interior passed through the city yesterday on his way west.

THERE are men who go to gymnasiums for exercise while their wives are at home sawing wood.

SUBSCRIBER—"Why is my paper so damp every issue? Editor—"Because there's so much due on it."

We should be most happy to hear from any of our subscribers who have a consciousness of being in arrears for subscription.

MR. P. O'CONNOR, proprietor of the Nicollet house, left for Toronto and other eastern points on a pleasure trip last week.

THE cards are out for a social evening party, given by a few of the popular young ladies of the city, at Edison hall on Monday evening, Aug. 20.

It is said a change is likely to take place shortly in the management of one of our daily papers. Politics it is stated has something to do with it.

MESSRS. EGAN, Bros. commence next week on the erection of a two storey granite and brick building, corner of Sutherland and Main streets.

THERE are 153 saloons in the stockyards' district of Chicago. It was there that all the disorder occurred. Rum and riot.

THE American railway strikers won't get much credit out of the strike; but they seem to be having a good deal of Deb-it out of it.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES, is the title of a new monthly journal devoted to the interest of the Catholic Societies of Philadelphia. It is modeled somewhat after the Ladies Home Journal.

It's a failing newspapers have in general, that they have a liking for advertising patronage, particularly government ones. Some to give a "prestige" to the public insert those without authority; it may be business or it may not, but it is not our Standard however.

Mrs. (JUDGE) Dubuc went east on Sunday evening, accompanied by her eldest daughter, Miss Florie Dubuc, who is going to the Hochelaga convent to complete her course of studies. Many friends were assembled at the C. P. R. station to bid them bon voyage.

Mrs. J. D. McDONALD, wife of our mutual friend J. D. left on Friday's express for Toronto and the Maritime provinces on a holiday trip. In the meantime, J. D. will rusticate at his own home at St. James, and solace himself during his better-half's absence in looking after his magnificent crop of garden vegetables.

THE C. P. R. library committee are actively engaged in completing the arrangements for the employee's picnic at Elm park on Saturday next. Offers of assistance are coming in from all quarters, many of the city merchants having voluntarily offered contributions to the prize fund, a complete programme of which will be made to furnish entertainment for those who attend.

Our genial and affable friend Mr. Jos. Fahey, C. P. R. conductor, went east to Brockville, Ont., on Monday evening's express. He has been appointed to represent the C. P. R. conductors between Vancouver and Port Arthur at a joint committee meeting of Canadian locomotive engineers and conductors, which meets in that city to discuss legislative questions.

THE St. Paul Globe has been sold to the Kittson estate, and Judge Flaudreau has retired from its management. In speaking of the above deal the Northwestern Chronicle says: "We would like to secure the judge's services but for one slight difficulty. Judge Flaudreau is strong in politics but a little weak on religion, while the Chronicle is weak in politics but strong on religion."

EVERY Protestant M. P. from the province of Quebec voted against Mr. McCarthy's resolution to hand over the control of the educational system of the Territories to the people most interested. The Quebec members chose to regard this resolution as a blow aimed at Separate Schools, and the fact that Protestant and Catholic alike sought to ward it off is significant. It is just as well that some folks in Ontario should thoroughly understand that any attempt to do away with the system of Separate Schools, meets with no encouragement from the Protestant minority of the sister province.—Brantford Expositor.

REV. FATHER DUPERON, pastor of the Sacred Heart Mission, Oklahoma, stated in the Northwestern Chronicle of July 27, that a man representing himself as Rev. Jerome Hunt of Devils Lake, N. D., had been collecting money at Oklahoma and also in Texas and Indiana, where he represented himself as Rev. A. Hofner and Rev. T. Duperon. The same man has collected money in California, Ohio and Illinois, representing himself as a priest from North Dakota. Bishop Shanley of North Dakota also denounces the man as an impostor, and says no priest or layman of his diocese is collecting money for his missions. The man is not a priest, and is said to be an escaped convict from Winnipeg.

FOUR years ago the Legislature of Quebec offered a bounty of 100 acres of land to every family containing twelve or more living children. Already 1,742 fathers of a dozen or more infants have received this mark of government consideration for fruitfulness, and applications for it are coming in at the rate of about 300 year. Quite a number of the families have more than 12 children, the honorable G. Ominet, the present Superintendent of Education in that province, for instance, being the twenty-sixth child of the same father and mother. What is called "the American sin" is not prevalent in that region, why not? For one reason because a majority of the people are Catholics and the

An Hair Turns Up.

On Wednesday last was published a list of estates which had been escheated to the English Crown, and among the names was that of Mary Lynch. M. Lynch, watchman in the employ of the Hudson's Bay company, residing on Assiniboine street, claims to be a son of the deceased, and no doubt will take steps to recover the property.

Immaculate Conception Picnic.

Two motors and eight trailers left the C. P. R. Station about 1.30 on Thursday, laden with picnickers, young and old, for the Immaculate Conception basket picnic at River park. They were also accompanied by the St. Boniface band in the band car. A programme of sports was successfully carried out and a fine day's outing terminated without the slightest hitch. The large number of visitors enjoyed themselves very well.
