

Legal Division
Library Office
March 26/1966

C-0813

THE PROVINCES OF CANADA AND THE EXERCISE
OF TREATY-MAKING POWERS

DEPARTMENT OF
EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
LIBRARY

TABLE OF CONTENTS
WITH THE SIGNATURE CHANGES

JUN 1 2004

Return to Department Library

20-3-1-CPA
9

INTRODUCTION

I	THE PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW RELATING TO THE POWER OF COMPONENT PARTS OF A FEDERAL STATE TO MAKE TREATIES	2
	Introduction	2
	Lauterpacht's View	4
	Fitzmaurice's View	5
	Waldock's View	7
	International Law Commission's Formulation	8
	Theoretical Basis for Commission's Rule	8
	The Question of Sovereignty	9
	Conclusions	11
II	A SURVEY OF STATE PRACTICE CONCERNING THE POWERS OF MEMBERS OF A FEDERAL STATE TO MAKE TREATIES	13
	(a) Component units which have or appear to have no treaty-making powers	13
	1. Australia	13
	2. India	14
	(b) Member states with powers to make certain treaties as agents of the federal union	15
	1. Switzerland	15
	(c) Members of a federal union with powers to make certain treaties as principals and not agents	17
	1. The United States of America	17
	2. The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics	21
	3. Germany	23
	(a) Federal Republic of Germany	23
	(b) German Democratic Republic	25
	Conclusions	26

43-757-629