

- (1) trade secrets or financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that belongs to the Government of Canada and has substantial value or is reasonably likely to have substantial value,
- (2) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of a government institution;
- (3) scientific or technical information obtained through research by an officer or employee of a government institution, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to deprive the officer or employee of priority of publication;
- (4) information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to be materially injurious to the financial interests of the Government of Canada or its ability to manage the economy of Canada or which could reasonably be expected to result in undue benefit to any person including:
 - i. Currency, coinage or legal tender of Canada,
 - ii. Contemplated change in the rate of bank interest or in government borrowing,