

- Any proposed contract involving a spouse is reviewed by the Board to ensure that the opportunity to compete was given to others, that there is no conflict of interest and that the staff member whose spouse has been considered for the contract was not involved in any way in the contracting process.

For information: A.D. Morgan
Director General
Personnel Planning and Development Bureau
995-9925