

to deal with issues related to Aboriginal people with disabilities, the Ministers of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, Health and Welfare, other departments that have programs that deal with Aboriginal people and the President of the Treasury Board should cooperate with the Minister Responsible for the Status of Disabled Persons in order to:

- a. Ensure immediate action to co-ordinate federal programs and activities that are directed towards, or are used by, Aboriginal people with disabilities. The Minister Responsible for the Status of Disabled Persons, in collaboration with the other Ministers, should make public a specific plan of action to deal with the co-ordination of federal activities related to Aboriginal people with disabilities no later than 1 November 1993.
- b. In consultation with Aboriginal people with disabilities, create a working group composed of senior managers of all responsible departments (including the Privy Council Office,

