

members. The hon. member for St. John's East is recognized on a point of order.

Mr. McGrath: Mr. Chairman, I rose in my seat before you called for the vote on the title but you did not recognize me. I rose, Sir, not to vote against the title of the bill but to register my protest against this farce. I wish at this time to state my opposition to these rules which rob us of our rights. I object to them most strongly.

The Chairman: Order, please. What is being considered by the committee this evening is Bill C-204, for granting to Her Majesty certain sums of money for the public service for the financial year ending March 31, 1974. We are not considering the rules of the House of Commons.

Shall the bill carry?
