

new stage of progress and that America must lead the way. It can go far on that way only by realizing that it is a part of the world; that the world also must move with it to new recoveries and new stabilities. Our primary remedy for present difficulties is not in the change of economic systems. It consists in an enlightened public opinion which will demand of our rulers that they seek peace, economic as well as political, and pursue it.