

sixty-four equal spaces for the autographs. In the inner circle write the following :

“Believing it to be conducive to personal piety, Christian influence, and the glory of God, to abstain from the dance, the theatre, the cards, and intoxicating drinks, we, by signing this circle, promise, by God’s grace, to renounce these things ourselves, and to encourage others to do likewise.” You might also write around the outer circle suitable Scripture passages.

The form being thus made, talk the question over with your acquaintances, and sign the circle with them.

Let the members of each Christian Endeavor Society, Epworth League, and Society of King’s Sons and Daughters, form a circle.

The consecrated Christian ladies, married and single, of the various churches in a village, town or community, may unite to form one great and influential circle.

It would be well also for the intelligent young men and women to form a separate circle.

In closing, let me ask everyone who reads these pages to say, “In the name of Christ, and trusting in His grace, I shall henceforth renounce the dance, the theatre, the cards, and intoxicating drink.”
