KEITH JOHNSTON'S GENERAL GAZETTEER, or GEOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY of the WORLD. New Edition, revised to August, 1864. 1 vol. 8vo. 31s. 6d. cloth; or 36s. 6d. half-russia.

'Having used the old edition of this geographical dictionary for many years, and always found it serviceable and accurate up to the date at which it appeared, we have long wished to see it brought up to the present time, and therefore heartily welcome this edition corrected to August 1864. We believe it to be the completest geographical dictionary in one volume in the English language.' SECRETOR.

'A very useful book of reference, all but as necessary to the statesman, merchant, and public writer as a Peerage or Post-Office Guide. The volume (new edition, corrected to August 1864) exhibits care and skill in the highest degree.' ATHENÆUM.

'There is no publication of the same description which contains information so varied and extensive, and at the same time so generally correct; it may be relied on for an accuracy not usually met with in such works.' MORNING POST.
