We were in error, and now we make amends:

Inadvertently two weeks ago we advertised that we would sell Kaufmann Rubbers at 64c. The rubbers advertised were not made by the Kaufmann Rubber Co., as stated, but were manufactured by the Miner Rubber Co. Our advertisement was not intended to mislead (it is not our policy to do so), and we gladly make this correction, and regret the error.

We are still selling Fine Rubbers, however, at Seventy-nine cents—79c and Sixty-four cents—64c These Tremendous Values at 119 YONGE STREET

SPRING SPECIAL ORDERS.

The new spring cloth samples for the Semi-ready Special Orders have been received at the Semi-ready store here. They reflect great credit on the English weavers, for, as one salesman expressed it, "I have never seen such exquisite and artistic productions in fine worsteds. The quality and texture prove the sterling of the secretary there.

A list of the games for next week in the Beaches League will be published in The Sunday World, and all teams that have not ice for the nights that the games are ordered for are to secure the same at some rink and report to the league productions in fine worsteds. The quality and texture prove the sterling of the secretary there.

A list of the games for next week in the Beaches League will be published in the Beaches Lea the British manufacturer."
Special Orders are the made-to-measure department of Semi-ready tailoring. These are sold in 500 stores in Canada, in stores that adhere to the close maker-to-wearer price in the pocket of Semi-ready clothes. This label represents the real value of the close maker-to-wearer price in the pocket of Semi-ready clothes. This label represents the real value of the wool by the pound, and is not based on the weave or on guesswork, but is the value of the basic cost.

OUEBEC HERE AGAIN PLAY THE ONTARIOS

The Stanley Cup holders will be here tonight when they meet the Ontarios for the second time on local ice. The last Riverdales by default four of the second time on local ice. The last appearance here Jimmy Murphy's men pulled out a victory and are out to repeat the second time. Since Quebec made their last appearance here they have defeated Ottawa at Quebec by 7 goals to 1, lost to Ottawa in Ottawa by a small score, and handed the Canadiens a defeat by six goals to one. It looks as if the champions have struck their stride and will make things interesting for all the teams before the end of the season. Much depends on on tonight's games. If Quebec can pull ut a win against Ontarios and Ottawa fall to Wanderers, Torontos must win against Canadiens to hold the lead. A defeat for either Toronto or Ottawa will put them down with the champions, providing Quebec win from Ontarios.

Captain McNamara will place the same team out that defeated Quebec two enough to take a fall out of the champions. This should be one of the best games played at the Arena this winter.
