The houses in the vicinity were badly damaged, many of the walls cracking, while windows were shattered. The bomb found its mark distant only a block from the American embassy at 5 Rue De Chaillot, where Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, who did not accompany the government to Bordeaux, still makes his home.

Found Mangled Bodies. In the wake of the bomb fluttered e German flag. At the sound of the explosion the promenaders in that section first rushed for shelter, and then as the airship moved on they hurried to the scene of the havoc. A cordon of police was quickly thrown about the debris, and the mangled body of the man killed was found and removed. Nearby the body of the girl was discovered. Her lower limbs had been shattered. Women in the crowd wept audibly as the child was borne to a hospital. Among the houses damaged was the residence of the Prince of Monaco. The buildings containing army stores Hon. Dr. Pyne stated last evening suffered considerably. The law on this point is understood to allow a governor to be sworn in at any point in the province, and since Col. Hendrie does not expect to be in Toronto today, it was rumored that the ceremony would be conducted in Hamilton. Mr. Boudreau, however, has no such instructions.

Comes With Surprise.

It is understood that the announce ment of the new appointment came with considerable surprise to the members of the Ontario cabinet. For some time it had been recognized that he was in line for the honor, but the appointment was not expected so early in view of the death of Sir James Whitney.

Hon. Dr. Pyne stated last evening ment affairs would se carried on as Church in Avenue De l'Alma. Many of the congregation fled to the street.

After the four-nour job. of receiving the show, the large crew of mechanics will have a short rest before they start on the far more arduous labor of setting the scenes for tonight's opening. Figures give but a faint idea of the magnitude of the production. There are no less than eighty-seven "drop" rieces to be hung from the gridiron. There is sufficient electrical illumination to light several miles of city streets. The wardrooe, with the many "quick changes" involved, is big enough to clothe a thousand persons. After grasping a few of these details, one actual structural cost of The New Theatre speciacie was $150,000. Everybody knows about "The Blue Bird" story. The legislative chamber today is scene of funeral splendor. The fact that Sir James was the first provincial premier to die in harness, has inspired a memorial setting, surpassing anything of the kind in the history of Ontario. The whole auditorium is festooned with hangings of purple and black, the seats of the members are guarded off with cords, and the whole atmosphere is unusual in its solemnity.

No Change Announced. The services tomorrow will be carried out as at first arranged. Following a brief service in St. James' Cathedral at 9 o'clock, the bier will be conveyed by special train to Morrisburg. Late in the afternoon the final ceremonies will be undertaken in the Whitney memorial church.
