

You Can't Buy Better Suits at $12.50

YOU can't buy better Men's and Young Men's Suits at $12.50 than ours no matter where you go to look for them. We pay as much for our $12.50 suits as most stores pay for their $18.00 and $20.00 garments.

WE'VE never sold Suits as low as $12.50 before and you can feel assured we wouldn't be doing it now if we weren't in a position to offer better inducements than other dealers.

WE'VE gathered the largest and most comprehensive display of suits at $12.50 that you've ever seen. They're smart, clever, and distinctive.

Other Suits at $15 to $25

Want English Soccer Men to Join Colors

LONDON, March 1.—At the end of the football season on April 30, the English soccer players will find themselves in a position never experienced before, that of being out of work. All contracts with the professional players, with the exception of a small number who signed until April 30, 1915, will end.

The signing season, which begins on May each year, will be held over until late in August, so as to prevent any inducements being held out which will interfere with the call to the colors. The English clubs must neither offer nor pay summer wages nor anything in the nature of a retainer; in fact, not a cent. Anything tending to keep the players from service.

On the other hand, the greatly reduced attendance at the league games this season, all the clubs are suffering badly from financial troubles, and the Football Association has called a special meeting for March 29 to adopt a scheme to help the clubs and also to consider important alterations in the playing rules.

One question that will be considered is the salaries to be paid the players in future, as it is thought in official quarters that under the altered conditions a much smaller sum than $20 a week will be a reasonable salary for all soccer players.

The Fraserburgh F.C. will hold a meeting at 446 Spadina avenue tonight at 8 o'clock to settle the registration forms which will be on hand for players to sign. The Fraserburgh F.C. are going back to their former grounds, Lappin avenue and Lansdowne avenue, to play this season. That will greatly help the club along to a successful season. There are still a few vacancies in the team for good players to fill and applicants for same should attend the meeting tonight or write the secretary, Alex. C. Duffie, 385 Arthur street.

St. Bernabae Football Club, champions Anglican League (Junior), held their first annual banquet on Saturday night last, which proved to be a decided success. Mr. Powell, the rector; Mr. Bruce, the curate, and Mr. Murrell, chairman, gave interesting speeches relating to the occasion, after which Mrs. Powell presented the medals to the members of the team. The remainder of the evening was spent with games and music.

The British Imperial F.C. will hold a special meeting tomorrow at Earlscourt Methodist Church at 1 o'clock in the basement. Any senior or junior players wishing to join the club please attend or communicate with J. J. Goldworthy, 105 Connelley street. The above club are holding a box social in Little's Hall, corner Ascot and Boon avenues, on Friday, March 6.

GEORGE ROWLINGS INSTANTLY KILLED

Body Found on Railway Tracks at Foot of Strachan Avenue

George Rowlings, of St. Thomas, was instantly killed by being run over by a train at the foot of Strachan avenue about 10:30 last night.

He was identified by a letter he had written to his father, George A. Rowlings, of St. Thomas. The letter had been written in Guelph a few days ago and had not been posted. It showed that he had been a member of the militia and as he was found dressed in civilian clothes it is thought he had secured his release.

He was about 27 years of age. There was a photo of a woman in his pocket, which bore the name of a London, Ont. photographer. It resembles the young man very much, and is thought to be that of his sister. There was also a cheque stub in his pocket bearing the name of George Rowlings and several letters addressed to him.

He was well dressed, wearing the latest cut overcoat of gray. His suit was blue serge with a small stripe.

RUSSIANS BEGIN GRAND ADVANCE AGAINST TURKS

Two Columns March on Erzurum, Sweeping Everything Before Them

TURKEY SICK OF WAR

Allies Work on Perfectly Coordinated Plans for Subjugation of Ottoman Empire

SPECIAL TABLE TO THE TORONTO WORLD.
PETROGRAD, March 1.—Russian troops are again moving forward on the Asiatic front, having cleared out the Turks from the Trans-Caucasus region. The Russians have now advanced several marches, sweeping aside, destroying, and capturing the detachments and forces that venture to attempt any opposition. They are now approaching Ozi Chai along one of the main high roads towards Erzurum from the west. From the east also a certain liveliness is again being exhibited, the Russians having taken a couple of guns from the Turks in an encounter in the mountain passes to the south of Alashkurt. The two forces are marching in concert and are about equidistant from their goal from opposite sides. Nothing more has been heard of the Turkish raid into Persia which ended so disastrously at Tabriz. From all accounts received the Turks are heartily sick of the adventure into which they were forced by the Goeben on behalf of Germany.

ADMIRAL BERNHARDT, commenting on the Russian Black Sea fleet, recently announced that the Russians have secured command of the sea inasmuch as the Goeben is unable any longer to threaten the Russian ships with a superior power.

THE renewal of activity on the Asiatic land front coincides with the naval action by Russia's allies at the Dardanelles and once more gives assurance of the perfectly concerted plans which are tending the allied operations throughout the war.

"TO OUR BOYS."
 "May God keep all our soldiers in His kind and loving care;
 May they always love and trust Him, however they may fare;
 May they feel that He is with them, whatever may befall;
 That He is ever near them—always by their side.
 When in battle you are fighting, 'Boys,' don't fear, the death may come, You have tried to do your duty, and He'll take you safely home.
 We pray that death may pass you by, and leave us all our boys,
 We pray that God may spare you to re-join us and share our joys.
 For we need you all so badly—all the mothers want their sons,
 But the country needs you greater; she wants men to man her guns.
 But
