

CHAPTER XIII.	Pages.
War of 1812-14—Its Effects on the County—Militia and Defences.....	120-130
CHAPTER XIV.
Further Land Grants—The Interior Settled—Clare devastated by Fire— Emmigration to Upper Canada—French locate at Marshalltown, Gilbert Cove and elsewhere.....	131-155
CHAPTER XV.
Visit of Governor Sir James Kempt to Digby—Steam Communication with Annapolis and St. John. N. B.—Loss of Packet Caroline —Digby County Established—Hillsburgh and Weymouth Townships Defined.....	156-172
CHAPTER XVI.
Political Notes—Clare accorded a Member in the House of Assembly— Appearance of "Potato Blight"—Court of Sessions raised in Clare —Education Encouraged.....	173-178
CHAPTER XVII.
Masonic and other Benevolent Institutions—Temperance Organizations and their Results—Miscellaneous Notes.....	179-242
CHAPTER XVIII.
Ecclesiastical History, Continued —Visit of Governor Falkland—Schools and General Literary Advancement—Sequel of Introduction of New Education Act—Centennial Celebration in Clare.....	243-264
CHAPTER XIX.
Additional Political Notes—Confederation—Shipping and Commerce.....	265-276
CHAPTER XX.
Farming and Agricultural Societies—Judicial History.....	277-284
CHAPTER XXI.
Sporting and other Amusements.....	285-286
CHAPTER XXII.
Western Counties' Railway.....	287-292
CHAPTER XXIII.
Nova Scotia Electric Telegraph and its success—Domestic Steamers and Telephone Lines.....	293-295
CHAPTER XXIV.
Biographies of General Conway and Admiral Digby—Sketches of Prominent Early Settlers.....	296-379
CHAPTER XXV.
Miscellaneous Notes—Valuable Documents—Our Future—How to make it Prosperous—Results of such Efforts—Conclusion.....	380-382
APPENDICES.
Copies of Valuable Documents—Roll of Clergy, Government Officers and Parliamentary Representatives—Municipal and Town Councils— Census Statistics.....	383-471