

ment of the United States extend over us her
enough to send us
d sheriffs, to con-
ough to establish ers of customs, to
h land offices, and
the highest bidder
y enough to do all
, that we now de-
Does not the head
ll us that England
pendence? Have thing? Have they er shall possess a
e ourselves under
Place patriotism
ments in the other,
e which seals will
nator from Maine
y, California will s than fifty years
they will have ab-
ble them to carry
an line to the Isth-wrong. But I think reshadowed what
resents itself thus:
atins is desirable,
y to the strength,
this country, we
a stream of emi-
induce, by every f patriotism in the
countenance them,
are in immediate
at. And if we do
territory, and shall led portion of this