

... is talking about it, and everybody is quite right.—Spectator (London.)

Prof.

4th THOUSAND.

PRICE 15 CENTS.

THE

CHESNEY, George T.
GERMAN

CONQUEST OF ENGLAND

IN 1875,

AND BATTLE OF DORKING;

OR, REMINISCENCES OF A VOLUNTEER,

DESCRIBING THE

ARRIVAL OF THE GERMAN ARMADA—DESTRUCTION OF
THE BRITISH FLEET—THE DECISIVE BATTLE OF
DORKING—CAPTURE OF LONDON—DOWN-
FALL OF THE ENGLISH EMPIRE,

BY AN EYEWITNESS, IN 1875.

(Reprinted from Blackwood's Magazine.)

Toronto :

ADAM, STEVENSON & CO.

1871.

As natural in its touches as can well be conceived.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Can. Com. J. of Commerce.
The verisimilitude is wonderful. Nothing like it outside of Robinson Crusoe.—Journal of Commerce.

The most remarkable Magazine Article of this generation.—Evening Telegraph.