

In memory of my husband I have had printed the accompanying Sermons, feeling that they will be appreciated by the many dear friends to whom both he and I were so dearly attached.

With nil good wishes for the coming year, and grateful remembrances of past kindnesses, I am,

Yours faithfully,

S. C. Pitblado

December, 1913