

numbers, conferences, and circuits, p. 320; Methodism in Canada, p. 321; impostors, p. 322; work of God in New-England, p. 323; Bishop Asbury visits that country, p. 324; his judgment of the state of things there, p. 326; death of John Wesley, p. 327; Dr. Coke proposes to return to Europe, p. 329; gives offence to his American brethren, p. 330; the conference vindicated, p. 331; Mr. Wesley's letter to E. Cooper, p. 333; Dr. Coke's cold reception, p. 334; is cheered by a letter from Bishop Asbury, p. 335; the field of labor enlarges, p. 337; numbers, p. 337.

CHAPTER III.

Conferences and circuits, p. 338; first settlements in Tennessee, p. 338; Bishop Asbury in Tennessee, p. 339; expulsion and deaths of preachers, and numbers in the Church, p. 341; General Conference of 1792, p. 342; its doings, p. 343; O'Kelly's resolution for an appeal rejected, p. 344; Bishop Asbury's letter, p. 345; rules for election and trial of a bishop, p. 346; of presiding elders, p. 347; allowance for preachers' wives, and rule respecting marriage fees, p. 348; rules respecting deficiencies, to prevent impositions, and the settlement of disputes, p. 349; respecting immoral ministers, receiving presents, the worship of God, and supernumerary preachers, p. 350; another General Conference ordered, p. 351; rule on sowing dissensions, p. 351; Mr. O'Kelly's secession, p. 351; reasons for it, p. 352; takes the name of "Republican Methodist," p. 353; societies formed, p. 353; spread into North Carolina, p. 354; disastrous results of the secession, p. 354; name changed to "Christian Church," p. 354; dwindles away, and its leader with it, p. 355; Bishop Asbury's interview with him, p. 355; hope in his death, p. 356; influence of these things upon the public mind, from which it gradually recovers p. 356; Concluding remarks, p. 356.

END OF VOLUME ONE.

...rretson goes to
...oppose, p. 220;
...223; good effects
...ism into Charles
...and the erection
...s effects on the
...228; Bishop As-
...kesbury College,
...students, p. 237,
...p. 241; rebuilt,
...243; three con-
...presiding elder's
...Church, p. 245;
...nt of Kentucky,
...by the Baptists,
...ers there, p. 253;
...ishop Asbury, p.
...aveling; case of Page 219

...arrives, p. 256;
...ded, p. 258; Mr.
...cted, p. 258; title
...ed, p. 261; care
...s north, p. 262;
...reachers, p. 267;
...268; Mr. Garrett-
...of things in that
...Alleghany Moun-
...reachers, p. 275;
...276; minute re-
...on of the United
...ashington and his
...hodism in New-
...Lee in Norwalk,
...ieties and house
...work of God in
...op Asbury, p. 295;
...district, particu-
...yer, p. 300; coun-
...ssolution, p. 305;
...bers, conferences,
...sbury visits Ken-
...on, Mass., p. 314;
...otes of J. Lee, p.
...numbers, p. 319;