

The market is with lumbermen operating in the vicinity; and at the stations on the Intercolonial Railway. There is no post office in the settlement, but two schools are in operation there and two more are being organized. There is also a church there. The settlers are nearly all Acadian French, of the Roman Catholic religion. The Commissioner is John Stevenson, Jr., Esq., who may be addressed at Kingston, Kent County.

COLEBROOKE DALE.

This settlement lies in the Parishes of Weldford and Harcourt, in the County of Kent, on Hudson Brook, South of the Richibucto River, and North-East of the Intercolonial Railway. It contains twenty lots of 100 acres each, being 2000 acres in all, and only three lots remain unapplied for. The land is good, and the settlement is easily reached from Richibucto River or the Intercolonial Railway. As the surrounding lands are nearly all applied for this settlement is not capable of extension, but small quantities of Crown Lands are vacant to the North-West and South-East. The Commissioner is John Stevenson, Jr., Esq., of Kingston, Kent County.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

CANOOSE.

Canoose Settlement is in the Parish of St. James and County of Charlotte. It lies on the Canoose River about five miles West from the New Brunswick and Canada Railway. It contains 2,502 acres; of which are taken, 2,255 acres; leaving still vacant, 247 acres. The lots are numbered from No. 8 to No. 26. The road to this tract leads through Lynnfield Settlement and thence by the "Horseback Road." The soil is a dark loam, deep and free from stone, and well adapted to the growth of root crops. The land is chiefly timbered with hard wood mixed with hemlock and spruce, where not burnt. A market may be found for produce at the towns of St. Stephen, N. B. and Calais, Maine, both about eighteen miles distant; or at Vanceboro, on the St. John and Maine Railway, only eight miles distant from the settlement. There is neither church, post office nor school in the settlement yet. The applicants are chiefly New Brunswickers with a few from the State of Maine. About half are Roman Catholics and the other half Protestants of various denominations. This settlement claims the advantage of having better markets to buy and sell in than most of the settlements of New Brunswick. Very little vacant land lies in the vicinity of this settlement, but a new tract lying on the Cheputnecticook River, above Canoose River, has recently been surveyed and is reported as being good land. The Commissioner is David F. Maxwell, Esq., St. Stephen, N. B.
