

and touch it with the beauty of the true culture. Truly Jesus knew whereof He was speaking when He said: "Ye must, ye must be born again."

My friends, this is the true culture. By all means, let us better the conditions under which we live. Let us cultivate the æsthetic. Let us store our minds with knowledge. Let us surround ourselves with noble and refined associations, but let us never imagine that in so doing we have attained unto the true culture. That is only reached through the possession of a mind and heart renewed by the grace of God and led captive to the will of Christ.

"One thing I of the Lord desire,
For all my way hath miry been,
Be it by water or by fire,
O, make me clean! O, make me clean!

So wash me thou without, within,
Or purge with fire if that must be,
No matter how, if only sin
Die out in me, die out in me."
