THE KENNEL.

WOODSTOCK'S DAISY DOGS.
George Douglas, Ed. Fuller, "Pop" Dunn and Pat Farrell have returned with their carload of fine dogs from attending the 23rd annual show of the Westminster Kennel Club. Woodstock dogs did well, as the prize list shows:

George Douglas' winnings were: First for black cocker with Black Duke; first and special for best red cocker in the show, with Red Mack; special for best registered dog and one of his get, Red Mack, and King of Hearts; second, puppy class, Spartan; first, puppy sweepstakes with Wilkey. The young red cocker, King of Hearts, which Dr. Douglas sold to Francis Henwood, of New York, won first in the limit red class, first in the novice class and third in the open red class. Fred Wilson won first in the novice class, first in the limit class, and second in the open class, with Canadian Duchess, his crack Manchester terrier. George Dunn's winnings were as follows: Third in limit, black and white; first in puppy class, with Rose of Ruby; first and second in novice class with Freedom and Pretender. Joseph Spracklin's Newfoundland Black Diamond got third. Mr. Douglas says that the majority of the winning cockers on the bench today are the get of the late Champion Black Duke. Mr. Douglas and Mr. Dunn both sold a couple of dogs at a good figure.

FISTIC.

TOM ALLEN ACQUITTED.
St. Louis, March 1.—Tom Allen, at one time heavy-weight champion pugilist of the world, who shot and killed John Conroy in the former's saloon last week, was acquitted by the coroner's jury yesterday. Allen's plea was self-defense.

MUSTARD ON HIS GLOVES.

New York, March 1.—The contest between Tommy West, of this city, and Jack Bonner, of Summit, Pa., which took place at the Lennox A. C. last night, was brought to a sudden termination at the beginning of the eighth round. Bonner's seconds had rubbed "oil of mustard" over the Summit man's gloves, and the fumes of it almost blinded West and Referee White. The latter ordered the men to their corners, and declared West the winner. Referee White called on the police to arrest Bonner's seconds, but Jack's handlers protested, and said that Bonner's manager, Fred Miller, had handed the bottle of oil to them after the seventh round, and said it was a good thing to use. During all this time the spectators were standing up, clamoring to know what it was all about. Master of Ceremonies Harvey, as soon as he could make himself heard, explained the matter fully, and when he announced the decision of the referee there was loud and prolonged cheers. No arrests were made.

BASEBALL.

ST. LOUIS CLUB SUSPENDED.
New York, March 1.—Disputes between clubs and players occupied the greater part of the time of the board of arbitration of the National League today. The principal cause taken up was the wrangle between the St. Louis Club and the Wilkesbarre Club. A result the former club has been suspended from the league. The trouble was that St. Louis was ordered by the board on Oct. 21, 1938, to pay to the Wilkesbarre Club $750 for the release of Ball Player Sutor Sullivan, and failed to do so. The St. Louis club is therefore cited to appear before the board and show cause. Meanwhile the club and Mr. Muckenfuss, the receiver, are suspended.

The board refused to grant Lush his release from the Rochester club. It developed during the day that with one or two exceptions, all the new York players had received contracts calling for reductions in salaries.

Muckenfuss, representing the Sportsman's Park and Club, appeared before the meeting and admitted the failure of the company to comply with the orders of the board of directors, to pay to the Chicago club $1,000. Muckenfuss also admitted being indebted to the league for the sum of $1,150 for dues and assessments. The matter will be referred to the league for action. The $1,000 that St. Louis was ordered to pay to the Chicago club was the outcome of the Decker deal. It is generally expected that the St. Louis Club will be expelled from the league.

BASEBALL IN GUELPH.

Baseball interest in Guelph is undergoing a revival. Guelph will enter the new Canadian League this year with London, Hamilton, St. Thomas, Chatham and Brantford. Mr. George Black, formerly of Saginaw, Mich., and this city, has assumed the management.

The description list opened a week ago, showing almost $1,000 already subscribed. Mr. George B. Slesman has placed the baseball park at the club's disposal for the approaching season free of charge.

FLYS.

Arthur Irwin has sold to "Billy" Barnie, of the Hartford club, Catcher Cooney Snyder. Sam LaRoque, who played last season in London, will be with the Lancaster Atlantic League team this year. Ward will captain and play second base on the same team.

George N. Kuntzsch, manager of the Syracuse Club in the Eastern League, has released Shiers, Lawrence and Wagner to Manager Buckner, of the Rochester team, and Catcher Shaw to the Hartford management.

Word has been received from President Powers that Rochester had secured M. H. Hale, of the Ottawa club, Bonner, Dean and Morse go to Rochester also, and Keister, Kelly, Boyd, Cannon and Horton to Hartford. The failure of Toronto to secure M. H. Hale will probably necessitate the signing of a new outfielder. Pitcher Crystall, of Woodstock, is said to be a handy man in the outfield, and if his work on the practice trip merits it he may secure a regular position in right, Grey staying in his old position in center. Crystall is a strong batter, and a good left hand thrower.

HOCKEY.

DECISION EXPECTED TODAY.
A decision is expected in the Guelph Nationals' protest against London today. It was thought that a decision would be reached yesterday, but London desired to be represented, and asked a stay of proceedings. A postponement was granted until today, and Capt. J. S. Brown, Secretary-Treasurer George Macbeth, and President Walter Smith will represent London at the meeting.

DUTTON DOWNS ST. THOMAS.
A hockey match was played at Dutton Monday night between Dutton and St. Thomas Juniors. The score was 8 to 0 in favor of Dutton.

GUELPH NATIONALS WON.

Guelph, Ont., March 1.—The Waterloo senior hockey team played an exhibition game with the Guelph Nationals last night, resulting in favor of the Nationals by a score of 10 to 6.

PARIS AND WOODSTOCK.
Ingersoll, Ont., March 1.—One of the semi-final games of the S. O. H. A. hockey series was played here last night, between Paris and Woodstock, resulting, after a hot contest, in a tie 3 to 3. The score at half-time was also a tie 2 to 2.

WHEEL.

DEAD MAN WON THE RACE.
Australian advices tell of a remarkable bicycle race in Sydney, which was won by a dead man. It occurred at a big electric light carnival, in a one mile race, where there were 50 entries, some of the fastest men in Australia taking part in it.

While 10,000 people watched this particular race, which was for a magnificent cup, young James Somerville passed under the tape a winner and a dead man. At the start he quickly forged ahead, closely followed by another crack rider named Percy CH. They left 43 riders away in the rear and shot around the track almost wheel to wheel. When within 25 yards of the tape Somerville, who still led by half a wheel, was seen to relax his hold on the handlebars. His pedals whirled around, however, and he pluckily held his position. Five yards from the tape Chiff put on a tremendous spurt and struck Somerville's hind wheel, shooting the machine with its then almost inanimate burden, like a rocket under the tape. The crowd yelled wildly, but silence ensued when Somerville, after crossing the tape, plunged headlong off the machine on the hard track. When picked up he was dead. Physicians who examined his body said he must have had an attack of heart failure on the last lap.

SKATING.

RACE FOR $50.
Walkerton, Ont., March 1.—A two-mile skating race here last night, for $50, was won by James W. Jones, of Collingwood. Leatie Jones, of Walkerton, finished second, and McLeod, of Collingwood, third.

THE GALATEA ABANDONED

Seven of Her Crew Arrive at Dartmouth.

A Boat Load of Seven Missing—Serious Charge Made Against the Captain.

Dartmouth, England, Feb. 28.—The British steamer Garton (Capt. Willis), from Brunswick, via Norfolk, on Feb. 9, for Rotterdam and Bremen, arrived here today, having on board the second officer and six of the crew of the British bark Galatea (Capt. Lewis), of St. John, N. B., from Turk's Island, on Jan. 30, with salt for Boston, reported on Feb. 18, to have been abandoned, dismasted and waterlogged.

The Galatea, it appears from the report of her second officer, was abandoned on Feb. 15, at which time she was in a sinking condition. Previous to that the bark had experienced terrible weather, and began to leak rapidly. In spite of the fact that her pumps were kept going, the Galatea made inches of water, and at 9 o'clock on the morning of Feb. 15, Capt. Lewis, the chief officer, the steward, the stewardess and three seamen left her in the only remaining boat, the others having been lost in the gale. At the end of four hours the boat was lost sight of in a furious gale, and the second officer considers it impossible for her to have weathered the storm.

At 9 o'clock the same evening the Garton hove in sight, and took off the remainder of the crew of the Galatea at 11 o'clock. The high seas running prevented the boat launched from the Garton from approaching the sinking bark, so the men on board donned life-jackets and were hauled through the water, one of them having an arm broken while being rescued.

The Galatea's second officer also says that after her sails were blown away, the commander ordered the remaining boat to be launched, and that he was the first to embark in her. The chief officer followed him, and the steward was next. The stewardess entered the boat. The crew then stepped into the boat. The stewardess, in so doing, fell into the sea and was nearly drowned. Capt. Lewis, according to the second officer, took with him all the provisions, and left the remainder of the crew on board the sinking ship, although, he adds, there was room for all in the boat, which hung about the bark until 1:30 p.m., and then rowed away.

DRAMATIC SCENE

At the Trial of Jesse James, Jun.—His Aged Grandmother in the Witness Box.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 28.—A feature of the trial of young Jesse James, charged with train robbery, was the appearance as a witness in his behalf of Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, 74 years old, mother of the James boys, and grandmother of the defendant. When the aged woman rose to be sworn, she held up the stump of the arm that was shot off by detectives who shattered her home, many years ago, with a bomb, in an attempt to arrest her notorious sons. Mrs. Samuels testified that she was at the James house on the night of the robbery, and that Jesse was sitting on the porch with her, when they heard the explosion that wrecked the express safe. Jesse James' mother, his sister, and defendant himself, gave testimony to the same effect.

ICE STOPS THE TRAIN.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—It was not snow on the Owen Sound branch of the Canadian Pacific, but was ice that caused the delay to the express from the Sound yesterday morning. Between Dundalk and Proton the train was stuck, because the snow had melted into water, flowed over the track, and the frozen water that wrecked the express came along it was unable to cut its way through the ice. Gangs of men were sent out to remove the ice from the rails with picks.

DIME NOVEL BOILED DOWN

A Court Courier's Race With Death—Won by a Hair's Breadth.

Antlers, I. T., Feb. 28.—The race with death of the courier of the United States court for the life of Walla Tonka, the condemned Choctaw Indian, was won by a hair's breadth by the courier, who made the wild ride from South McAlester to Alkhi.

Walla Tonka was to have been shot yesterday noon for the murder of his uncle, and came to the execution ground as he had promised to do, having been set at liberty, pending final action by the court. A few days ago a reprieve for a rehearing of the case was ordered by Judge Clayton, and the courier dispatched on the 80-mile journey. Rain was falling in torrents and every cause for fear that he could not make Alkhi.

The first part of the journey was not so bad, but he had but one broncho to carry him the distance. It was after midnight Sunday morning when the rider reached the flooded Klauchi River. Here he stopped till daylight, and then, with his hand on the pommel of his saddle, swam the stream with his pony. The pony was almost exhausted when Big Creek was reached, and a long detour was necessary, which caused hours of delay. Night came, and more rain, and when the courier reached the execution ground, the broncho staggered. He fell to the ground with the rider, and they rested for the night, though but ten miles from Alkhi. Before dawn they were up again, and finally the broncho bearing the courier staggered to the execution ground, where the witness, ex-governor, and the stolid Walla Tonka were facing death. The Indian heard his reprieve without comment, and will appear before Judge Clayton forthwith.

A Good Report.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Cameron's Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me. I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good."
