You have that right, gentlemen of the jury, but I stitute. want to say that whatever else you are, I do not believe you are cowards. And I want to say that whatever else Bill Haywood may be, he is not a coward. I would not thank this jury if it returned a verdict of assault and battery and assessed a fine of $5 against this defendant "If this man sitting in his office in Denver, 1,400 miles away employed an assassin to do this cowardly act, then you ought to hang him, by the neck, until he is dead. For God's sake, men, do not compromise. If you believe the story that has been told against this man beyond all reasonable doubt, then take him and hang him. He has fought many a fight against the persecutors who are hounding him into this court. He had fought them on the open battlefield and he is not a coward. If he has to die, he will die as he has lived with his face to the foe. Bill Haywood is either innocent or guilty. If he be guilty I have nothing to say. But men, this case is a case of Orchard from beginning to end. There is nothing at all left of the evidence without him."
