An immense procession was formed and paraded the streets, headed by Piper John Hewitt with the bagpipes. 118 The newly-elected member was placed in a sleigh drawn by men and followed 461 by an immense crowd to the corner of Main and Goderich streets, where a big bonfire had been lighted. Here Mr. Mc-Lean addressed the crowd. He congratulated his supporters for the able and effective support they had given him, and the different municipalities for the handsome majorities they hal 21 piled up in his favor. Fireworks were set off along the street, and everything indicated the popularity of the In the Liberal committee rooms Mr. McLean was received by a very large number of electors from the town and surrounding country, and was heartily congratulated on every side, while more bagpipe music was given by Pipers Hewitt and John McDonald. The campaign was an old-time educational one. In every corner of the constitu-51 ency public meetings were held by 67 both parties, and the issues of the day 104 were fully gone into. As in other re-80 cent by-elections, the Conservatives pinned their faith to charges of ex-302 travagance and graft and to the assertion that the burdens of the people had been increased. The Liberal speakers eschewed personalities, and gave facts Gunn. as to the great growth of trade and of 23 all the revenue-earning departments of 28 the Government. Interview Legislature. Guelph, Jan. 22.-At last night's meeting of the city council a delegation of five aldermen and the mayor were appointed to wait upon the Ontario Legislature to make arrangements as to what will be done in the matter of enlargements to the present Winter Fair Building, and this afternoon this delegation met with three standing committees of the council and discussed the proposition and what the city will be willing to do in the matter.
