SAYS JURORS CAN WALK ON TOUR OF INSPECTION

County Councillors Refuse to Pay Cab Fare—Park on Mountain Brow,

HAMILTON, Dec. 9.—(Special).—This afternoon a deputation of grand jurors waited upon the stationery of the Western County Council and requested that the council should authorize the hiring of cabs to take the grand jurors to the top of the mountain. They expressed the view that the walk from the top of the mountain to the asylum would be good for the jurors' health. The councillors refused to sanction the expense because they think the asylum is inspected by grand jurors more frequently than necessary.

Land for Park.—This afternoon Geo. F. Webb offered to present to the parks board a strip of land on the mountain brow about half a mile long on condition that the board give him a franchise for a street railway for the full length of the mountain drive. The board declined to consider the proposition.

John Dillon arrested to-night on the charge of cutting and wounding Richard Gracey. Fred Walls was also taken in, charged with stealing harness from D. S. Gillies.

Shot While Hunting.—Alfred House, an ager, ancestor farmer, was shot and fatally injured by J. Vaughan, Welland. They were out rabbit shooting, and when Vaughan raised his rifle to take aim at a rabbit, it was discharged, the farmer receiving the full charge of shot in his thigh. He lingered until last night. Death resulted from shock.

At the meeting of the license commissioners in London, Ontario, on written, detailed reports Inspector Birrell made against William Condon, and the inspector, acting upon instructions from the department, has made a full report of the case to the provincial secretary. The trouble between the inspector and Condon is of several years' standing, and some interesting developments are expected when the minister deals with the case.

CROWN ATTORNEY GETS HIS LATE CASE

CORNWALL, Dec. 9.—(Special).—In the counties' court evidence was heard on a charge of assault against Melvin Beeg, son of Victor Beeg, a well-known resident of Moose Creek, who punched another lad named Dillabough, who had called him a vile name. Judge O'Reilly charged strongly in favor of the prisoner, and criticized Crown Attorney Dingwall for bringing in such a trivial case before the court. Beeg was acquitted.

The other case is a charge of arson against W. F. McBain of Rainville, who is charged with having set fire to his own barn after a quarrel with his family. The case was not finished to-night.

THE RESULT AT WINNIPEG.

The election of Sanford Evans as mayor of Winnipeg is a victory for the friends of public ownership. His principal opponent, R. A. C. Manning, is said to have been the favorite with the Mackenzie and Mann outfit, who have surplus power to sell to the city. Winnipeg is now in good financial shape and the new mayor is pledged to promote the municipal power plant. Ex-Mayor Ashdown seems to have disappeared.

GREATEST CROWDS EVER AT GUELPH STOCK SHOW

At Civic Luncheon to Cattle Men, Some Complaints Regarding Accommodation Made.

GUELPH, Dec. 9.—(Special).—The glory of Guelph is the perfect stock show, the 25th one in her history. Larger and more enthusiastic crowds than ever have passed through the gates. Today was the most of the awards completed. Poultrymen all over the top hat are talking shop, which, mingled with the crowing birds, forms a true fancier's paradise.

The horsemen were out in force to listen to the addresses by William Smith of Columbus, Dr. Rees of the O. A. C., and Dr. Standish of Walkerton. The room was crowded with practical men, whose questions and discussions developed many ideas on the treatment of indigestion, colic, lymphangitis, azoturia and joint ills.

Dairymen were interested in a discussion on the feeding value of pasteurized whey, by Messrs. W. C. Sheard of Bright, A. Stephens of Quebec, Inspector Hoar and Prof. Dean, but the session was very poorly attended, the majority of the visitors being attracted to the living exhibits and the horse lectures.

Civic Luncheon.—The civic luncheon to-day was given in honor of the cattle men, but chief interest centred in the remarks of Joseph P. Downey, M.L.A., and Hon. Jas. Duff. The former effectively combated the arguments that are being advanced for the removal of the fair to Toronto.

"We hear a big howl," said he, "about our hotel accommodations, because some belated traveler asks for a certain room and is told that some other guest has taken it. He then begins to mutter about Guelph's lack of room. But Guelph can accommodate, and will do so."

The minister contended that no removal should be advocated until Guelph and Wellington County could not handle the show.

Robert Miller upheld the tradition of cattle breeders by telling the old story of breed improvement having its reward in the ends gained.

Mr. Hoyle, M. L. A., and Arthur Johnston also made congratulatory addresses.

The Canadian Plymouth Rock Club met and elected these officers: President, James McCormack of London, Ont.; secretary, T. H. Weston of London, Ont.; vice-presidents were A. Hockin, E. Snider and I. K. Millard. A resolution appointing H. Schwab as judge for next year was passed.

Women's Institute.—The minister of agriculture presided at the opening of the 8th Women's Institute, at which several hundred delegates were present. President Creelman welcomed the delegates and urged them to further the growth of the movement, showing how the membership had increased since the year 1907. There were now 381 working organizations.

Mr. C. C. James, deputy minister, gave an address on the problems of farming and how the farmer can be helped to make bigger returns from the soil, which was the pressing problem. He deprecated certain features of American life, which remarks were somewhat adversely criticized by the next speaker, Mrs. M. Van-Rensselaer of Cornwall University, Ithaca, N. Y., who spoke upon the subject of the value of the home life on the farm. She laid great stress on the better ventilation of our buildings at home and in public places.

In the dairy test the awards were given to the Holstein breeders again in the lead. M. L. Haley of Springfield, Ont., won first on Lady Aggie Dekol, which yielded 203 pounds and milk testing 3.7. Bull and Essons of Brampton had the only Jersey, and she made the high test of 4.7. The Shorthorn breeders all made good fat tests, showing an average of 4.12.

NEW PIANO WAREHOUSES.

The Old Firm of Heintzman & Co., Limited, of the New and Heintzman Warehouses in London, Ont.

The new piano warehouses of the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Ltd., opened at 242 Dundas-street, London, Ont., may be fittingly described as a veritable palace of music and art. Perhaps no thing more genuinely artistic will be found anywhere on the continent. The closest attention has been paid to the most minute detail of decoration, comfort and convenience.

The art decorations are by Mr. E. Glen of the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts. The work of the artist is most creditably shown in the painted oval panels of the ceiling, allegorical pictures which show to advantage in the ivory setting.

Oil paintings of the old masters, Liszt, Handel, Weber and Gluck adorn the walls. Here and there gleams an Italian marble bust of a prominent musician.

One of the striking features of this handsome piano salon is the manner in which the individual parlors for the exhibit of pianos are laid out. First comes the empire room, paneled and decorated to represent this style of architecture and art. Next a genuine mission room; again a Corinthian room, a French room, and, largest of all, the old English room, the lower half of the walls being in oak paneling, the upper finished in dark champagne and the ceilings in ivory. In each of these is shown a range of pianos to conform with the individual decorations of the room.

These warehouses are looked upon as being a source of attraction in the Forest City is not surprising. Mr. J. A. Croden, the local manager, under whose direction the work was planned and carried through to completion, is deservedly receiving the congratulations of his fellow-citizens at this time, and also for the large degree of success to which the business of Heintzman & Co. in the west has attained, making such warehouses possible.
