HOSPITAL FLOODS 400 PATIENTS IN DANGER

Rescued in Nick of Time—The Situation in Paris as Bad as in War Time—Seine Reported Stationary.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—It was officially stated at 1 o'clock this morning that the River Seine here was stationary, and that its tributaries continued to fall.

The situation greatly improved between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning. This in part is attributed to the change in the weather. Suddenly the skies cleared and a full moon burst out. The temperature dropped, and the wind veered to the eastward. The official report stated that the waters will begin to recede to-day.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—An agonizing cry goes up from the people of Paris to-night. "Will the end ever come?" they are asking.

After a slow but steady rise of the flood waters through the day, the vital department at midnight could only issue a statement saying that it was probable the crest of the flood would be reached to-morrow.

Several hospitals are in a dreadful plight, water having reached their cellars and quenched the fires in the furnaces and quenching the fires in the furnaces and quenching the fires in the furnaces.

While some of the soldiers were laying pontoons, others lifted out patients from the hospital. Two hundred were saved in boats while the other two hundred were carried across the pontoons on the backs of the soldiers.

The situation in the Place de l'Opera to-night is grave. The entire territory has been roped off as unsafe. It is said also that the new Equitable Life Assurance building is in danger of collapse.

President Fallieres and Premier Briand drove in a motorcade through the flooded suburbs where distress is greatest, speaking words of comfort to the homeless and encouraging the soldiers and others engaged in salvage and rescue work.

Unionists Lead Liberals By One

Conservatives Scored Five Gains in Yesterday's Returns—Asquith Leaves for South of France.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The position of the parties to-night is as follows: Unionists, 264; Liberals, 263; Conservatives, 123; Nationalists, 7.

Now that the electoral struggle is on the point of closing, the curious effect is seen of both parties claiming victory and both supporting their claim with plausible arguments, broadly speaking, on the question of free trade against protection.

ROBBED WITH AX AT ROCKS AGED SISTERS

One of the Women May Die—Assailant, a Young Man, is Captured Near Havelock.

NORWOOD, Ont., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—What may yet prove to be a case of murder occurred this morning about two miles east of here, when a strange man attacked the Misses MacPherson, both aged, with an ax.

The assailant had first asked for something to eat. He was given food, and then he asked if there was any wood he could split. The sisters were anxious to get rid of him, and he attempted to strike her down also.

Before the man could carry out his evident intention at robbery he was frightened away by the approach of a neighbor who happened to be by the railroad track.

LIBERAL MEMBER FAVORS SALARY FOR HIS LEADER

And There is No Enthusiasm Over Proposition to Bring Chief From Outside.

Seventeen Liberal members who followed Leader Mackay in the legislature are not enthusiastic over the prospect of new leader being brought from the outside to supplant Mr. Mackay.

GLAVIS SAYS BALLINGER MADE SOME ADMISSIONS

Including a Reference to Campaign Contributions and Their Interest in Certain Coal Lands.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The proceedings in the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry took a lively aspect this afternoon when Louis R. Glavis, continuing his testimony against Secretary Ballinger, told of various interviews he had had with the secretary of the interior, while he was in and out of the government service.

Glavis declared that in one of these interviews, in October, 1908, Ballinger told him he was having a hard time trying to collect campaign contributions, and that two men involved in the Cunningham claims, who had been liberal contributors in the past, had declined to contribute because they were angry at not being granted patents for the Alaska coal lands.

N.Y. MEAT PRICES SHOWN MARKED DECLINE

But Fish is Costing the Consumer a Great Deal More—Is the Packer Wholly to Blame?

NEW YORK, N.Y., Jan. 28.—James J. Hill, one of the first persons to issue a warning against national extravagance and its reflection in the advanced cost of living, said to-day that half the problem lies in the discretion of the housewife.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—There was a widespread understanding among retail butchers here to-day that the western packers have decided to cut in half their shipments of cattle to this city in an effort to uphold the price of beef.

Porterhouse steak from 24 cents to 20; sirloin steak 22 to 18; prime ribs, pig 22 to 18; pork chops 18 to 15; pork cutlets 15 to 12; leg of mutton 22 to 18; mutton 14 to 12.

It is supposed that the New York packer buys his steer on the hoof in the Chicago stockyards. The steer weighs 1323 pounds in Chicago for which 7 1/2 cents is paid, making the cost for the New York packer $100.00. Owing to loss of weight by transportation, the steer when led to slaughter here weighs only 1200 lbs. When dressed it weighs only 734 pounds of salable meat, of which 734 pounds should bring top notch price.

Consumer Pays for Graft. Aside from the quarrel between the packer, the wholesaler and the retailer.
