

A WHIRL THRU TORONTO.
Mr. R. L. Borden and Mr. J. R. L. Starr about to take a motor ride thru the most interesting sections of the city.

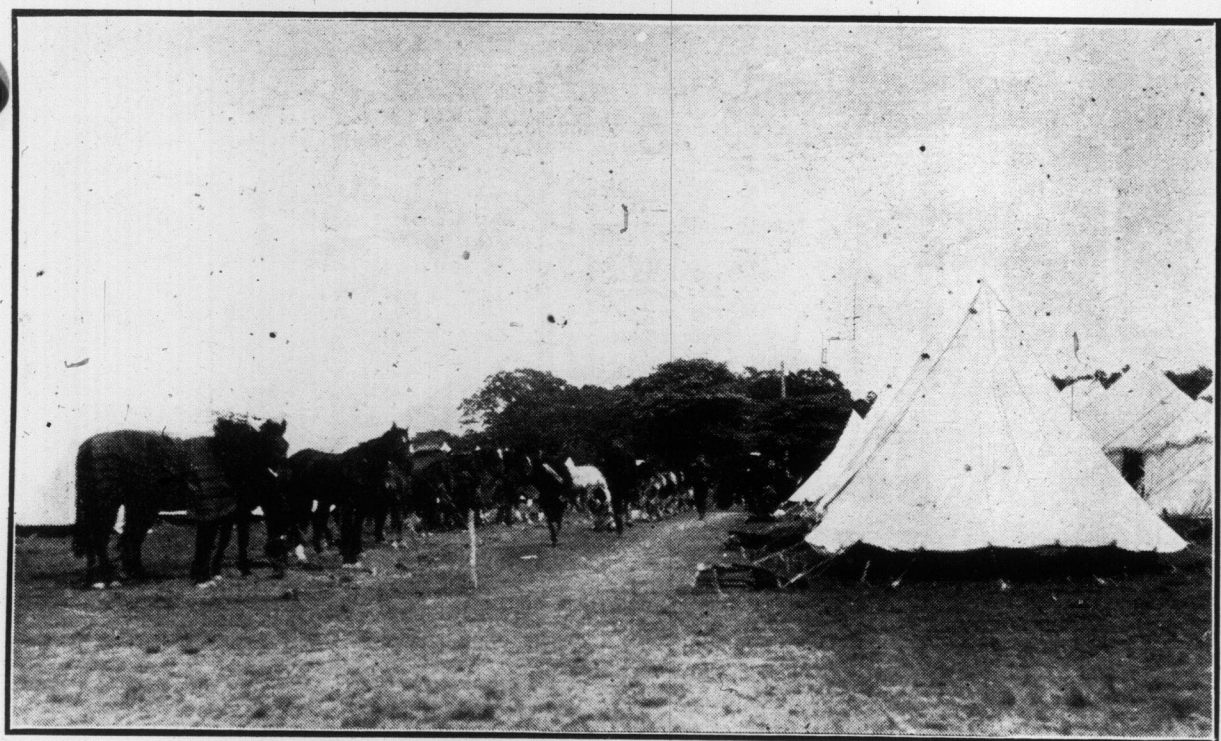

OLLEGIATE INSTITUTE CADET CORPS, 1909-10. OFFICERS AND PRIVATES OF JARVIS-STREET C

PLEASANT REUNION OF OLD FRIENDS.
Mr. R. L. Borden and committee, at the recent picnic at Long Branch, laying out the line of action for the big day.

CONSERVATIVE PICNIC AT LONG BRANCH.
Portion of the merry-makers who listened to the interesting addresses of Mr. R. L. Borden and others.

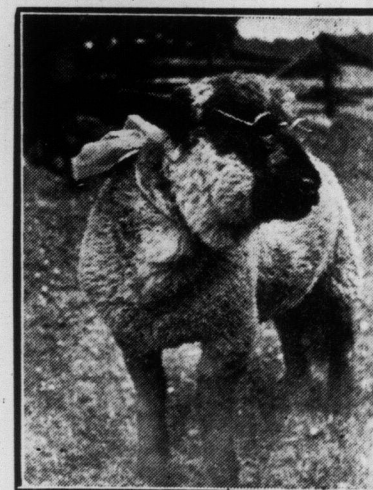

EVENING ON THE CAMP GROUND.
Cavalry horses quartered for the night, sleeping tents of cavalry men and officers taking a last look over the field.

A HALT BY THE WAYSIDE.
Members of the Governor-General's Body Guard waiting for the bugle to summon them to dinner.

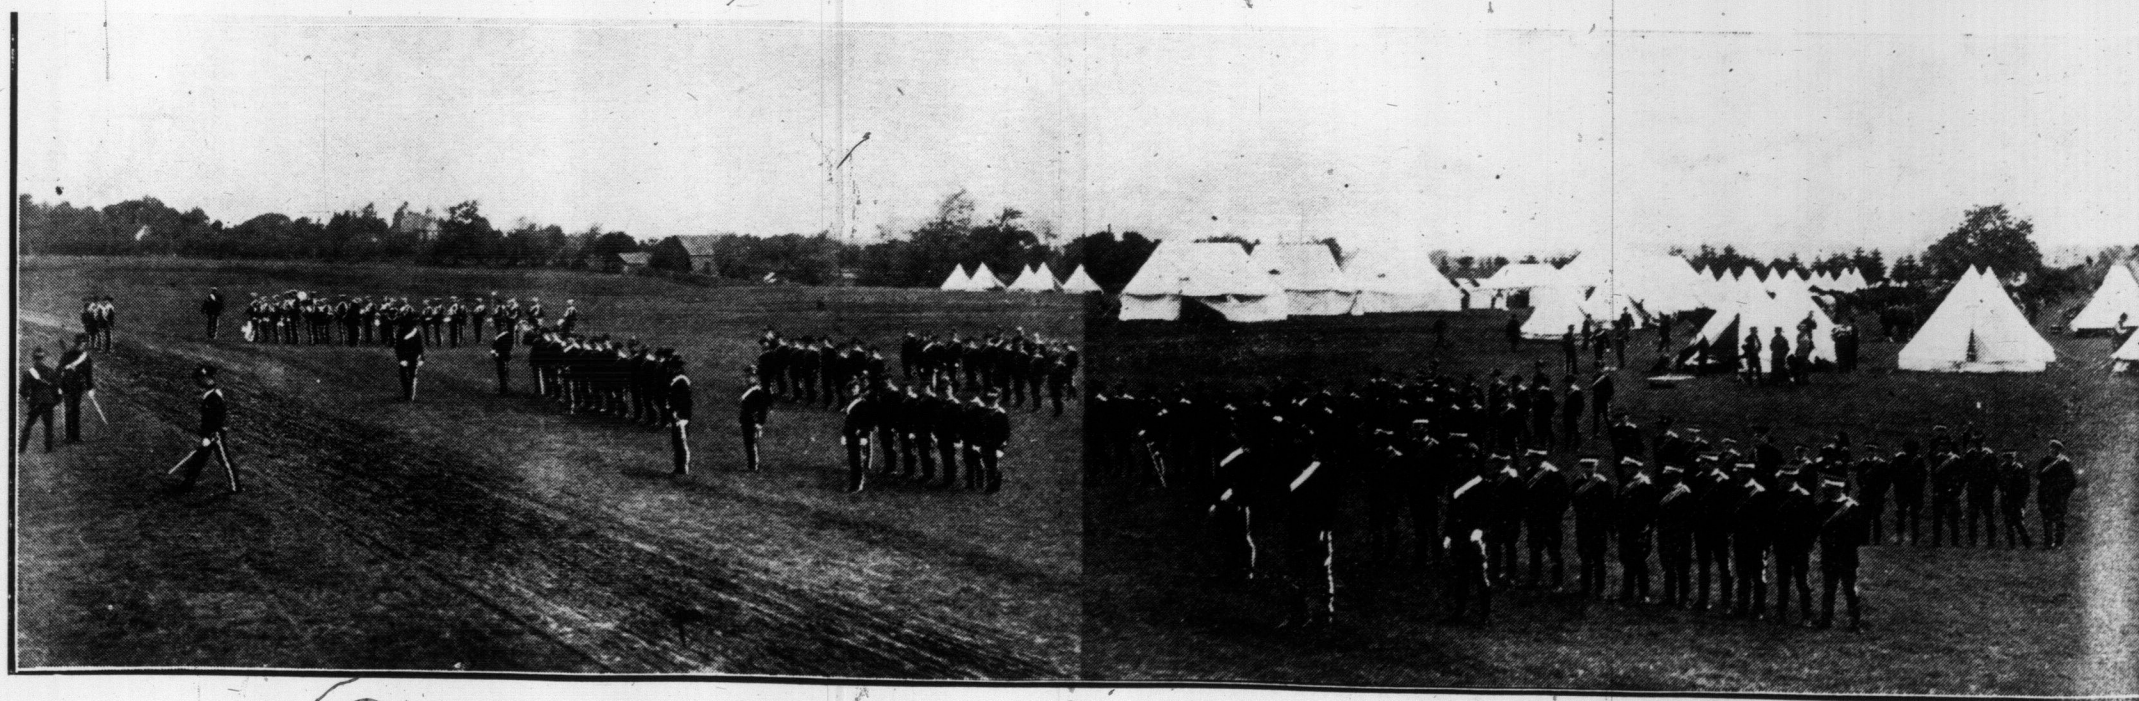

MISS GERTIE GLEGG.
Young Toronto actress who has just concluded a successful season in vaudeville.

MARY'S LITTLE LAMB.
One of the pets on a York County farm.

A WELL-EARNED MEAL.
Cavalry horses having a noon-day feed at Niagara camp.

SUNDAY MORNING IN CAMP.
The Governor-General's Body Guard lined up on Niagara camp grounds for divine service. The order that all men shall attend divine service is imperative. As a result the chaplain has always a large congregation.