TOGO REPORTS THAT HIS VICTORY IS COMPLETE

TOGO'S AND ROJESTVENSKY'S SHIPS SIDE BY SIDE.

Washington, May 30.—The Japanese legation tonight gave out the following telegram from Tokyo: "Fifth report from Togo received afternoon May 30: "The main force of our combined fleet upon ascending the coast of the remaining Russian main force near Lianzhou Rocks, in the afternoon of May 29, as already reported, stopped pursuit and while engaged in the disposition of surrendered ships found in a southerly direction, the Admiral Ushakov, a coast defense ship, Theresou Iwate and Yakumo were immediately despatched in pursuit and in view here to surrender, but the refused and was sunk at 6 p. m. Her crew of over 300 men were rescued.

"Loss of Oshiba, Navarin confirmed. Sino-Velik also definitely reported to be at anchor here today in the curving harbor of Golden Horn, they having escaped from the fleet in the early stages of the battle which began in the Korea Strait Saturday and headed, in obedience to orders, with full speed to Vladivostok. Up to 6 o'clock this afternoon no other vessels of the Baltic fleet had yet arrived and the signal stations at Asokod and Rimokorokoff islands reported none in sight. Officers of the Almaz and Greasy say that both fleets had already sustained terrible losses when the Almaz and Greasy broke through the hostile line. The Japanese, two battleships had gone down before their eyes and two cruisers, their sterns high out of the water, seemed ready to plunge foremost to the bottom of the sea.

the Borodino, and the cruisers Oshiba and Ural were utterly destroyed and then the fog closed down and hid the scene of the battle from sight. Northward of the speeding ships a third great Russian battleship, the Alexander III, seemed in sore distress but limping northward, putting up a valiant fight against a throng of torpedo boats and still containing her attacks on the cruisers of the Allied Empire. Torpedo boats were also closing round the other ships of the fleet like angry wasps, separate flotillas dashing in again to launch their vengeance. The Almaz, which arrived at her anchorage here Monday evening, bears scars of the battle. Her masts were in shreds and one of her smokestacks is pierced by a cannon shot. But the Gromy, though engaged for several hours in a running fight at short range with a large Japanese destroyer, shows no signs of the fray and finally after her commander, Capt. Andrich, had been wounded and an officer and three men had been killed, the Gromy succeeded in sinking her opponent with a lucky placed shot and reached Vladivostok without further adventure at 11 o'clock this morning.

For the past two days Vladivostok had been bustling with rumor and excitement. The fact that a battle between the rival fleets was imminent if Rojostvensky was not already at hand gave with Togo, was made known through telegrams from Sapporo, and when it was learned Monday morning that a Russian cruiser had been sighted off Asokod tobacco headed for the harbor the city was filled with the wildest reports of every nature. Six o'clock in the evening a great flotilla of two snow white steamers stood in view at the entrance of the Golden Horn and rounded to an anchorage beyond the breaking guns of the curving promontory. From afar the broken stump of her masts and a shot hole showing black upon the white paint of one stack indicated that the cruiser had encountered the Japanese.

THE TEST, A Story of Modern Finance

By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE In the Popular Magazine. (Continued.) With the first of the year there came the reaction considerably forecast by all observers of the ways of the Street. A quiet but steady slump in prices followed the bull movement; and the public, who had been lulled by the easy money of the commission houses, were surprised to find themselves in a position to buy stocks at a lower rate than their selling price, and thereby profit. And in the interval that elapsed before the public—the real "Mr. of the Street"—all that was the game worth the candle to the trader—regains its confidence and brings back its savings with interest, the Exchange floor is given over, for the most part, to the operations of "room traders" or "washers" who trade on their own account and cheerfully bleed one another for fractional points, confining their attention to the smallest fluctuations and taking their profits of one-eighth and one-fourth of one per cent. with all the ease imaginable. But in this money war there is nothing, absolutely nothing, of profit for the commission house. Therefore the ordinary speculator in private for his own account, is pretty conclusively a "bull" if he wants prices to rise and the public to be lured back behind the curtain board. Grey & Moxon, however, did not suffer in strict proportion to their loss for female intelligibility. A divvy best steadily increasing volume of business on the Mogul's account kept the office busy; Grey himself became almost a specialist in "the Mogul group" or the "Pendleton group," as the stocks and bonds of railroads controlled by the Mogul were known in the Street.
