MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The negotiations for the allies war loan in New York are continuing the chief point of difference being the amount. The bankers offer $500,000,000 while the Anglo-French commission want $1,000,000,000.

At a meeting of the legislative council of India yesterday a resolution was adopted urging that India be allowed to send a representative to the next council of the Empire and that Lord Harding, the viceroy, be their representative.

In his evidence in Winnipeg yesterday, William Salt said that he assisted in fixing the records of the construction of the parliament buildings to help out the millwright and the witness, Charles A. Dansey, deputy minister of public works, said he saw Salt, but he said nothing in the records from the files.

ALBION B. Foster and his wife were painfully injured when their car upset near Bristol, N. B., last evening. Two ladies with them escaped.

FROM CHICAGO ON VISIT.

Prof. Allan Hobbs, Ph. D. of the University of Chicago, with Mrs. Hobbs, is enjoying a two weeks' holiday in New Brunswick. He will spend the time with his mother at Grand Bay, at the home of his brother-in-law, Rev. W. R. Robinson. Prof. Hobbs is a son of the late Thomas Hobbs, superintendent of the Canada Eastern Division of the C. C. R.

WHAT HAPPENED?

A young man from Cowdenham went into a London restaurant for dinner. He could not understand a word of French, but determined that he would not display his ignorance before the waiter, he pointed to an item on the menu and said—"I'll have some of that, please." The waiter looked compassionate. "I'm sorry," he said gently, "but the band is playing that just at present."

AN OBJECTION.

"I hope you find your bedroom comfortable," said the boarding-house proprietor.
"The room is most comfortable," said the taciturn guest, "but the walls are so thin that I don't think the gentleman in the next room can have quite the privacy he would wish for his morning."
