THE MORNING WAR SUMMARY

A violent storm has temporarily put a stop to military operations of an important nature along the greater part of the battlefield in Belgium and France. In this territory the positions of the opposing forces remain virtually the same as they have been for weeks past.

In the eastern arena the official reports indicate a similar condition of affairs, so far as progress on the part of either side is concerned. Petrograd reports, however, that between the Pilica river and the Upper Vistula the Germans are now on the defensive.

The Russians also report the capture of more than twenty thousand prisoners, to which reference was made in previous announcements. A Petrograd despatch by way of London, says that all the important passes on the Carpathians are again in Russian hands.

The United States government has made strong representations to Great Britain, insisting on an early improvement in the treatment of American commerce by the British fleet. A long note has been forwarded to the British foreign secretary through Ambassador Page, covering the relations between the United States and Great Britain as affected by the British naval policy which is considered "highly objectionable" by the American government.

The British government through the naval and military authorities, apparently fearing a raid over British towns by German airships, has issued a warning to the people to take cover should the sound of firing be heard.

FIRST FRENCH CHRISTMAS IN ALSACE SINCE 1870

Thann, Alsace, Dec. 29.—The population of that portion of Alsace extending from near Altkirch to near St. Die, a strip of territory of about twelve miles, enjoyed a French Christmas for the first time since 1870. The midnight mass of Christmas Eve in Thann was celebrated with exceptional pomp. Col. Albert Carr, director of the Comédie Française in Paris, arranged to have several eminent musicians and singers provide the music. In other villages sermons in French were preached at the last Christmas services, by soldier priests. Most of their congregations were old men and women and children and French soldiers. All the young men have gone to the war.

There is a general air of quiet rejoicing at the prospect of an approaching reunion with the mother country. In humble homes little French flags fly openly, children who have been taught the German language from their birth now shout "Vive la France," and many young women who were engaged to marry Germans before the war are said to have broken their troth, declaring now they will marry only Frenchmen.

In spite of the daily fighting the Alsatians are having a good time, as quantities of food and delicacies are being sent them from France.

Desires Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by filling the condition of the ear. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane of the tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. It is a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. It is a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result.

GERMANS OFFER $5,000 FOR HIM, DEAD OR ALIVE

Commander Samson of the British navy, known to the Germans as Captain Kettle, has annoyed them so much with his remarkable acrobatic exploits about Ypres and Courtrai in France that they have offered a reward of $5,000 for his capture, dead or alive. He is among the most, if not the most, daring of British acrobats, and has done much damage to the Germans besides doing important spy work for the allied army. So the official offer of a high price for his head has been made. However, the knowledge of his danger has not stopped his work nor ruffled his disposition.

SENSATIONAL THEORY IN CONNECTION WITH ARREST

New Orleans, Dec. 29.—A confession by Hans Halle, who admitted conspiring to destroy British and French ships by placing infernal machines aboard, threatens to lead to a diplomatic sensation, according to reports ascribed to an authoritative source. That Halle is a tool of an international gang which may include men of world-wide reputation, was one police theory of the case.

The train of exposures expected to follow show, Police Chief Reynolds said, that numerous British ships sent to the bottom, presumably by German mines or submarines, were destroyed by bombs made in New Orleans. The plottings of Halle and Sommers are believed to be part of an international conspiracy against the allies involving high officials.
