SIR E. SHACKLETON DEAD IN ANTARCTIC

Sir Ernest Shackleton, the British explorer, died on board his steamer "The Quest," on which he was making another expedition into the Antarctic region, according to word received from Montevideo, Uruguay. Death was due from angina pectoris. Professor Gruvel and other members of the explorer's party will continue the expedition.

Sir Ernest Henry Shackleton, C.V.O., M.V.O., F.R.G.S., F.R.A.S., R.G.S., was born at Kilkee, Scotland, on February 15, 1874, the eldest son of Henry Shackleton, M.D. He was educated at Dulwich College. Soon after leaving college he went to sea in the mercantile service, later becoming lieutenant in the Royal navy. From 1903 to 1906 he was secretary and treasurer of the Royal Scottish Geographical Society. In 1906 he took part in a political campaign as Unionist candidate for parliament from Dundee. He was unsuccessful.

Sir Ernest Shackleton was a third lieutenant in the British National Antarctic expedition in 1901, and in 1907-1909 commanded an expedition which got to within ninety-seven miles of the South Pole. He made his third quest of the pole in 1914. The expedition in which he was engaged when he died was to have covered 30,000 miles of uncharted sections of the South Atlantic, the Pacific and the Antarctic seas.

THE LATE SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON

ings were to have been taken of the ocean plateau surrounding Gough's Island, in an effort to determine the truth regarding a supposed underwater continental connection between Africa and America.

Sir Ernest for his distinguished services was made a knight in 1909.

Other Honors Conferred.

Among the other honors bestowed upon him was that of a younger brother of Trinity House, honorary life membership on the boards of the Melbourne, Midland, Poplar and Epsom hospitals. He was a special gold medalist and silver medalist of the Royal Geographical Society. He also was awarded the king's polar medal with two bars and gold medals by the geographical societies of Scotland, Denmark, Belgium, France, Italy, United States, City of Paris and Russia. He was commander of the orders of Dannebrog of Denmark, Pole Star of Sweden, St. Olaf of Norway. He was an officer of the Legion of Honor of France, of the Royal Crown of Prussia, of the Crown of Italy and of St. Anne of Russia.

His publications included the "Heart of the Antarctic" and the "Diary of a Troopship." He was a member of the Arctic Club of New York, Royal Belgian Yacht Club, the Appalachian Mountain Club, and of various other organizations.

In 1904 he married Emily Mary Dorman, second daughter of the late Charles Dorman. Of the union there are two sons and a daughter.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Williams-Boyd.
A quiet wedding was solemnized by Rev. C. T. Clark at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Keating, Church street, Fairville, last Saturday afternoon, when their niece, Miss Inez Boyd, was united in marriage to Harold Williams, Hanover. The bride is the daughter of John Boyd. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will make their home in Hanover.

RECENT DEATHS

Shuparski-Chase.
At Avon, Queens County, Saturday, January 21, Miss Violet Chase was united in marriage with John Shuparski.

Mrs. John Moore Campbell.
The death of Mrs. John Moore Campbell occurred at her residence, 14 Sunmer street, on Saturday, in the sixty-sixth year of her age. Mrs. Campbell was a woman of strong intellect and her mind was perfectly clear to the last. She was resident in St. John for many years and a devoted member of St. Paul's Anglican church. She was very highly regarded for her sweet and kindly disposition. She was the widow of Rev. John Moore Campbell, rector of Bridgetown (N. S.) and came of a distinguished family. She was the granddaughter of Jacob Calnek, a nephew of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg, who came to Canada in command of the Hessians troops. Her father, John Campbell, was Rosina Von Wolff, daughter of Jacob Bernhard Von Wolff, of Hertsfeldt, and his wife, Franziska Handel Bernut, of Berlin, Prussia, was married in 1771 on the first of July to Jacob Calnek, of Arolsen, the son-in-law of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg. Her brother, Jacob Jeremiah Von Wolff, was physician to the King of Hanover, was a son of the sister of Jacob Calnek. She was the daughter of Jacob Calnek, and her mother a Miss Longmire, of Whitehaven, England. She leaves to mourn one son, C. W. F. Campbell, and one daughter, Miss Margaret L. Campbell, both of St. John.

John Sullivan.
Much sympathy will be felt for Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sullivan, 183 Main street, in the death of their only little son and youngest child, John F. Sullivan, aged five months, whose death occurred on Saturday. Besides his parents, four sisters survive.

Joshua Bridges.
The death of Joshua Bridges occurred in this city yesterday at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Bridges, after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Bridges formerly resided in St. Martin's but came to St. John to make his home two years ago. He leaves his wife, three sons and three daughters. Everett Bridges, who was taken to St. Martin's by the 12:20 train today for burial on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. B. Snow.
Many friends will hear with great regret the death of Mrs. A. B. Snow, which occurred yesterday afternoon at her residence, 101 Main street. Mrs. Snow was the daughter of James and the late James Pringle and was born in South Africa. She will be sincerely mourned by all who knew her. Besides her husband, she leaves five children, Mrs. Mary Eric, Thelma, James and Hope. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.

Miss Florence Gilchrist.
The death of Miss Florence Gilchrist occurred on Saturday at the residence of her sister, Mrs. John K. Lawson, in Eastmount, after a brief illness of one week, and has come as a great shock to many friends. Miss Gilchrist was the daughter of the late John and Ellen Gilchrist. She had a splendid record for service as a V. A. D. during the war. She was on duty at the St. James street military hospital from the time of its opening and in 1917 she went with the New Brunswick detachment of the V. A. D.'s to England. Having served for several months at the Fifth Northern General Hospital in Leicester, she was transferred to the marine hospital at Portland, where she served until late in 1919. She was very popular with a wide circle of friends in St. John and sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.

Mrs. Samuel Elder.
The death of Mrs. Samuel Elder aged 72, occurred suddenly as a result of pneumonia, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Francis, Oliville, Queens County, on Saturday. She leaves one son and four daughters, one of whom is Mrs. William T. Tilley, of West St. John.

Abraham Bloomfield.
Abraham Bloomfield, of Montreal, died at the Victoria Hospital at Fredericton on Saturday, after a brief illness of pneumonia. He is survived by his wife, three children and two brothers. The body

Others Relieved—Why Not You?

Catarth Does Harm—Get Rid Of It.
Catarth of the nose or throat when the calls are too persistent, something must give way. Which shall it be?

The small city in which I live, of about 18,000 people, has, by actual count, at least 70 women's organizations, many in connection with the churches, the rest patriotic, benevolent, literary, etc. This list does not include the numerous clubs for sport, golf, skating, tennis, basketball, etc., card clubs, dancing clubs, motorizing and entertaining.

The growth of this sort of thing moves in a vicious circle. Mrs. A wants Mrs. B to come to her meeting, and if Mrs. B doesn't, then Mrs. A won't go. What is the remedy?

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease and gives permanent relief. This alternative and tonic medicine has proved entirely satisfactory to thousands of families in three generations.

If there is biliousness or constipation, take Hood's Pills—they are purely vegetable, gentle, thorough.

THE WILD, WILD WOMEN.

Editor Woman's Page, Toronto Globe:—There is a cry of protest rising up all over Ontario regarding a modern affliction, which might be called "Meetingitis," and the sufferers are the women.

The symptoms are calls day after day by post, by telephone, by personal message, for attendance at meetings, for contributions to meetings, and for service as officers at meetings.

And there is a revolt among us. For, after all, most of us have homes, where
