HILT. BELYEA AND DOROTHY DALTON

Also Rodolfo Valentino, All Starring at Imperial Today
--An Excellent Programme That Attracted Many.

Would you like to see big steamers sailing through tumultuous seas? Would it give you a queer feeling to fly over the dizzy Victoria Falls of South Africa?
Would you have enjoyed following our Hilton Belyea over the course in the big race at Philadelphia last week? And then to top off with, would you like to sit for an hour and a half and see one of Frank Norris' best sea yarns actually re-lived before your very eyes? Well, this is what the Imperial Theatre gave its patrons yesterday, thousands of patrons that overflowed the big theatre at night, and it is what is going to be shown again today and tonight.

If there is any lure in a well mixed programme of the unbeatable mores the Keith house had it last night. The big feature, "Moran of the Lady Letty" was a thumping production, salty, breezy, rough-and-ready sailing with Dorothy Dalton dressed as a man--she was "Moran"--and handsome swarthy Rodolfo Valentino as the shanghaied society dude, who afterwards made good.
What with square-rigged ships, four-masted schooners, pirates and smugglers with hand-to-hand struggles on the yardarm and all that sort of oceanic excitement the Paramount production was a rip-snorter from the very beginning, whilst the orchestra kept piling on the good old sea changes and atmospheric numbers as found in "Pinafore," and elsewhere.

The gold challenge cup contest on the Schulzkill with Hoover, Belyea, Gilmore and Costello was a special treat ordered by the Keith people for their own houses. It showed Belyea, alone, also Costello and the others before the contest. Then it gave a fine panorama of the race, though photographed at an angle that rather showed Hoover at too much advantage. Belyea's sprint in the last hundred yards is clearly seen and strengthens the belief that he can do even better than in the contest last week.
Then there is the cup presentation and a good picture of Hoover and the whole bunch.

The rest of the programme is made up of the scenic pictures indicated in the

STRONG PICTURE AT THE UNIQUE

"Cheated Hearts," Powerful Drama, Well Acted--Eddie Polo and a Comedy Also.

"Cheated Hearts" starring Herbert Rawlinson, at the Unique Theatre, is an adaptation of William F. Payson's novel, "Barry Gordon," and is the story of a young man who inherits something more than "Virginia" millions when his father dies. He finds himself cursed with a constant desire for liquor.
The pivotal idea, however, is overshadowed by the dramatic incidents of the story. The young man promises his sweetheart not to drink--and he keeps his promise.

Until one day he sees his fiancée apparently responding to the attentions of his brother. His brother is a lucky fellow--no drink habit, no troubles. So Barry Gordon packs his bag and flees to Paris, where he tries to absorb enough wine to drown the memory of his sweetheart and his brother finding their happiness together.

A year or two later he reads in the papers that his brother, prospecting in Morocco, has been captured by bandits and is held for ransom. Instantly the

MARTY DUPREE AT QUEEN SQUARE

Farewell Week for Marty Dupree and Her Musical Comedy Co.

Commencing the last week of one of the most pleasant and successful engagements ever enjoyed by any theatrical troupe in the maritime provinces, Marty Dupree and her Musical Folies scored another decided hit in their new offering, "Come Back to Connamara," a little Irish play full of good singing, dancing, specialties and clean snappy comedy. This is the first bill the patrons of the Queen Square Theatre have had the opportunity of seeing Dannie Drohan, the clever comedian, as himself, and his offering "Mother Macrae," received well-merited applause. Alley Bagley, prima donna, who has sang her way into the hearts of the patrons of this theatre, once again scored in "When I Lost You Mother of Mine." Cliff Blanchard, a little juvenile, was very pleasing with his offering, "Indiana." Frank O'Neil, the boy tenor, who has also become a great favorite during his short stay in St. John, sang "Somebody's Mother." To great advantage the versatile Miss Marty Dupree, most popular both on and off the stage, once again pleased her audience with "Mandy and Me." Frank Smith portrays the character of Tim in his usual pleasing manner. "Come Back to Connamara" surpasses anything Marty Dupree has presented.

There will be three surprise nights this week--tonight a flapper parade; Wednesday night, a country grocery store, and Friday night, amateur contest. Follow the crowd to the Queen Square and enjoy a good evening's entertainment.

GREAT PICTURE AT OPERA HOUSE

"Theodora" a Thrilling Romance With Magnificent Scenes of Days of Roman Empire.

Gorgeous is a word frequently used by those who describe dramatic scenes whose magnificence has pleased. The word is much too weak adequately to fit the settings of "Theodora." Some of the scenes shown last night at the Opera House are the most amazing any theatre has ever displayed. It is one of those pictures that will live as one of the greatest spectacles of motion picture art.

"Theodora" is history, a real story, and wild lions have been used in an incident in history to make it more palatable for screening purposes. Good houses last night were raised out of their seats by thrill after thrill, which were worked up in such a way as not to jar one's nerves.

Those who want to see a wild and turbulent mob threatening to overthrow the great empire of Rome, see a herd of wild and ferocious beasts tearing through a gorgeous hippodrome, see "the most beautiful vamping of history, are asked to see Rita Jolivet as the empress of the east, Theodora.

The story was taken from the play written by Victor Sardou for Sarah Bernhardt. It is about a wicked woman, who dies after having turned forty ferocious lions on the populace, thinking to save her lover by taking the attention brought before the emperor for having denounced the empress.

For the first time in history the Vatican has allowed the use of its building for screening, so that "Theodora" would be architecturally correct.

"Theodora" is booked for three days, but indications are that its success yesterday will necessitate it being held over.

A fresh, rosy complexion indicates perfect health. To secure this in most cases all that is necessary is to take one to three Royal Yeast Cakes a day for a few weeks.

Royal Yeast is a food. It supplies the water soluble vitamins which the diet may lack. Scientists tell us that this vitamin is essential to good health. Royal Yeast is highly beneficial in many cases in which the system seems to be run down. The yeast cakes simply add to the diet. It is a food--not a medicine.

Dissolve a Royal Yeast Cake in fruit juices or mix it with cereal and milk, and take it at meal time. The chances are in a few weeks the complexion will be clear. For children reduce the amount to one-half or one-quarter of a cake with each meal.

A few Minutes at Night Saves Hours on Wash Day

A few minutes at night--just the little time you need to put the clothes to soak in rich, soapy cleansing Rinso suds-- Saves you hours of rubbing, and wearing out the clothes and yourself on a metal washboard next day, because you just rinse the dirt away--the clothes are already washed by Rinso.

Do not pour the Rinso straight into the tub.
Make the Rinso liquid first--this is very important--Then it guarantees wonderful results.

IF YOU USE A WASHING MACHINE Soak your clothes in the Rinso suds as usual--for one hour, two hours, overnight, or as long as invenient, then add more Rinso solution and work the machine. Rinse thoroughly and dry--you will have a clean, sweet, snow white wash.
