EAST AFRICAN TROUBLE ENGAGES ATTENTION OF ILLINGTON CONFERENCE

Twelve Hundred Clergymen of Evangelical Wing of Church of England There—Vicar of St. Andrew's, Hull, Resigns

(Special to Times)

London, Jan. 14.—Several references to the Kikuyu controversy were made yesterday at the Illington Clerical Conference, attended by 1,200 clergy of the evangelical wing of the Church of England. The chairman, Rural Dean Procter, spoke of the large hearted and most proper action of the Bishops of Uganda, while the Bishop of Carlsle answered the appeal of the Bishop of Zanzibar, "What does ecclesia anglicana stand for, saying it stood for Christ and, inductively, love of all the brethren."

The Bishop of Carlsle gave utterance to ideas that are already a fait accompli in Montreal, when he declared that theological colleges must cease to be partisan and sectional, and must be administered not by fragments, but by the whole church.

Lawlessness in the Church of England was the chief reason assigned by Rev. J. J. Beddows, the vicar of St. Andrew's, Hull, for the resignation which he has just placed in the hands of the bishop. He declares that the church is rapidly departing from the principles of the thirty-nine articles, and that the evangelical party has ceased to be a witness to the truth, having assimilated practices condemned thirty years ago. He says he has no intention of taking a new charge.

Rev. Dr. Newton Marshall, pastor of the Hampstead Baptist church, and a noted leader in the National Free Church Council, died yesterday, aged only forty-one. He was one of the most creditable in the nonconformist ministry, and was especially interested in evangelism on the continent.

Joseph Henneberry vs. Wm. T. Bell in Circuit Court

The civil case of Joseph Henneberry vs. William T. Bell came up for trial in the Circuit Court this morning before Mr. Justice Crockett and the following jury, George W. Currie, Joseph Stanton, George M. Lawson, Thomas Tonge, and M. J. McCarthy.

The action was brought to recover damages for alleged assault and battery. The plaintiff claims $500. On September 4, according to the plaintiff's story, while standing at the corner of Union street at the corner of Union Alley, he was struck in the side by a stone said to have been thrown by the defendant.

The defendant says that while his wife was washing windows that plaintiff and others threw stones and broke several panes of glass in his house, and he, the defendant, then got out of bed and threw a stone at the crowd in the alley. Walter Harris, M. C. Connell and Louie Jones were examined this morning. The hearing will be continued this afternoon. J. A. Barry is for the plaintiff and T. P. Regan for the defendant.

NO DIVIDEND

Annual Meeting of Miramichi Steam Navigation Co.

Chatham, N. B., Jan. 14.—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Miramichi Steam Navigation Company was held yesterday. The boat earnings were an improvement on the year previous, but as extensive improvements had been put on the Alexandra and the Sybella H., no dividend could be declared for the year. The following directors were elected—W. B. Snowball, R. A. Snowball, J. D. B. P. MacKenzie, John McDonald. The directors elected president, Hon. J. P. Burellid; vice-president, J. D. Creighton; secretary and manager, H. B. McDonald.

PHILLIPS-LYNCH

A pretty nuptial event was performed at 8:30 o'clock this morning in St. Peter's church, when the rector, Rev. Charles McCormick, C. S. R., united in marriage Miss Mary Gertrude, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lynch, to Charles M. Phillips, of Fairville. The bride, who was attended by Miss Alice McManus, as bridesmaid, was nicely attired in fawn whippoor and wore a hat to correspond. The bridesmaid was dressed in a pretty costume of brown broadcloth and wore a hat to match. William B. Fisher acted as groomsmen. After the wedding a tempting breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 187 Bridge street, at which only immediate relatives and intimate friends were present. The groom's present to his bride was a substantial cash gift; to the bridesmaid a set ring, and to the best man a sapphire stick pin. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will reside at 189 Bridge street and will have the best wishes for future happiness from many friends who remembered them with numerous useful and valuable wedding gifts.

ONLY ONE RESPONDED

Of the sixteen persons reported a few days ago for working in the city without a license, Earl T. Peck was the only one to appear in court today in answer to the charge. He said he had been working in the city since last January and had not received a tax bill, and consequently had not paid. He was sent to the city hall to see if there was a bill against him. Ten others were reported by Sergeant Finley yesterday. They are William Currie, William Profit, Leo Doyle, Albert Kroger, Duncan Fisher, John Sullivan, Percy Webster, Richard Taylor, Willard Hunter and John McKerrrie.

LECTURE GREATLY ENJOYED

Through London with Camera, was the title of a most interesting lecture delivered by Mrs. E. A. Smith before a large audience in the school room of Queen Square Methodist church last evening. Mrs. Smith spoke of many places of interest in the ancient city and beautiful views of London and its surroundings added greatly to the attractiveness of the lecture.

J. Willard Smith presided and at the close of the lecture presented to Mrs. Smith a very hearty vote of thanks on behalf of those present. During the evening Miss Gaetz sang a solo most acceptably.

REVENUES OF HARBOR TAKE DECIDED DROP

Looks Like Decrease of $13,000 in City Receipts

EMPRESS LOSS CHIEF CAUSE

December Alone Saw a Falling Off of $6,151—Laborers and Business Men Also Feel Difference

During December the harbor revenues collected by the city showed a decrease of $6,151.16 as compared with the revenue for the corresponding month in the previous year. Of this reduction more than one half would be due to the loss sustained by the substitution of the Royal line of steamers for the Empress vessels.

A study of the comparative revenues from these lines is interesting. During the previous winter season of 1912-1913 the amounts collected by the city on account of the Empresses were as follows:

|                                    |             |
|------------------------------------|-------------|
| Top wharfage                       | $8,275.92  |
| Side wharfage                      | 2,696.50    |
| Harbor masters' fees and anchorage | 899.25      |
| Water supply                       | 1,658.88    |
| Total                              | $14,528.25 |

Owing to the fact that the Royal line steamers dock at the I. C. R. pier instead of at the city wharves the city loses all the revenue from top and side wharfage, a total loss of about $12,000 for the season. In addition to this loss the city loses a large proportion of the harbor master's fees, anchorage fees and cost of water supply, owing to the smaller tonnage of the C. N. R. steamers. For instance, an Empress steamer of 5,025 tons pays $81.75 for harbor master's and anchorage fees as compared with the Royal George, 8,985 tons, which pays $82.25 and the water supply fees would be in proportion. The loss is made greater by the fact that the Royal Line is making only ten sailings this year as compared with eleven Empresses last season. On this basis the total loss to the city for the season will be about $18,000.

However, this is only a small part of the loss to the citizens. So far the Royal steamers have carried from 800 to 1,000 tons of cargo a steamer, while last year the Empress cargoes ran as high as 6,500 tons. The cost of handling all this extra cargo, which was to the ship laborers, is lost and the merchants who supply the steamers with provisions will also have much smaller bills this season.

SAYS 1914 A GREAT YEAR FOR MIDDLE WEST

James Scott, Former St. John Man, Here From Winnipeg

James Scott of Winnipeg, and former critic of St. John, has been revisiting old friends here and also paid a visit to Halifax. He is now returning to the western city, where he has been established for a number of years. When St. John Mr. Scott was for a time in the United States consul's office and for a time with J. R. Warner & Co. Company. He is now in the brokerage business in Winnipeg, and has been very successful.

In conversation with the Times yesterday Mr. Scott said that in his opinion 1914 would be a great year for the middle west. In the first place an unusually large area of land was prepared for the crop last fall because of the exceptionally favorable season. Winnipeg, he says, is going ahead at an enormous rate, and the bank clearings and building statistics of the last year make a great showing. The Hudson Bay Company expects to begin work in February or March on the site of the new store which they will erect in Winnipeg at a cost of about $2,225,000.

Mr. Scott regards the outlook for the middle west as much more favorable than that of British Columbia. With regard to the latter, he points out that the city of Vancouver will soon have a great rival in Prince Rupert which will be a day nearer to the Orient and which is very much nearer to the immensely valuable fisheries of the northern coast. It will be remembered that Hon. Mr. Hazen, in his recent address before the Canadian Club of St. John predicted that Prince Rupert would one day be the greatest centre of the fish trade in the world.

Mr. Scott is thoroughly conversant with conditions in the west, having watched its growth for thirty years, and talks in the most interesting way concerning the wonderful changes that have taken place since he first went to Winnipeg. Among the old friends he visited while in St. John was H. L. Spencer, the venerable poet.

IN HONOR OF MISS LEAVITT

At the annual conversation of the Central History Society last evening, a pleasant time was enjoyed by a large gathering of members. W. F. Burditt, the president, gave an opening address of interest, speaking of the increased prosperity of the society and the more favor with which it was being regarded by non-members.

The chief feature of the evening was the unveiling of a portrait of Miss Grace Leavitt, who has been treasurer of the society since its organization twenty years ago, and has rendered most efficient service.

Other speakers besides the president were M. G. P. Matheson, secretary of the ladies' association; Rev. W. O. Raymond and Rev. D. Hutchinson. Vocal solos were given by Miss Gay and Miss Louise Knight, and a violin duet by Miss McLean and Miss Barker.

A DAIRY FOR 1914

The Times has received from George A. Knodell a very convenient diary for 1914, with a maxim for every day in the year. For desk purposes it will prove of much value, while the maxims should do much, if pondered over a little, to keep the owner on the right track in his daily conduct.
