ROUND-ABOUT COURSE FOR STREET ROLLER

Necessity, besides being the mother of invention, is also responsible for some peculiar fancies, but perhaps there are none which from the outside look more peculiar than the manner in which the city's street roller is operated in Prince street.

The only way to roll the roadway is to run the machine down hill, and then comes the question, How will it get up again? This is where Mrs. Necessity fosters an idea and acting under it the "chauffeur" takes his machine along Prince William street up Duke and along Canterbury street for another descent.

HONESTY APPRECIATED An appreciation of honesty was made this morning by John J. Wood when he asked that mention be made of an instance in which a pocketbook which he had lost had been restored to him through the uprightness of a fellow citizen.

Mr. Allan's contribution was warmly received by the meeting, and Councillor John O'Brien, chairman of the committee, moved a vote of thanks, seconded by James McMurray, which was carried with enthusiasm.

No doubt the flags will do their good share in this campaign, and the committee feel grateful for the gift, which carries with it such a happy augury of success.

The Man In The Street

Been to the fair yet? Guess the censor's still on the job. But, speaking about the war, the Boston Braves are showing up well.

Yes, we thought it was a very good fair. The chap who passed the Yankee copers on the newsboys is another added to the "meanest man" class.

Going Up! Got your coal in yet? Think of the poor kids ten or fifteen years from now trying to struggle through the names of some of those battles now being fought.

The War Cost of Living is far worse than the H. C. of L. used to be. The weather bulletin in Europe probably announce "unsettled."

After many weeks' waiting we can now enjoy a through street ride, but still we don't see why we couldn't have it sooner.

Don't forget to take a 5 cent cup of tea or coffee for the patriotic fund, at the exhibition. If the Germans had only stuck to that band business, they would be more popular now.

Many fellows speaking of Nancy have a sigh of relief that at last there's come a name with which they're somewhat familiar. This actually happened at the big show on the exhibition grounds yesterday.

Hay's all stowed away, the potato crop is harvested, and we're in town for the exhibition. Another bag of peanuts there, boss.

German's can't collect rents in Canada," says headline. The Germans needn't worry, there are others in the same boat. Great competition these days between the "barkers" on the midway and the other kind in the dog show.

That dinner in Paris to which the Kaiser invited his officers must be getting cold. New York restaurant keeper posted a sign on his place, reading "The War will be decided in Europe—Don't try to start anything here." Could anything be more eloquent?

Meanwhile what's become of the Pink steps, now that reinforcements have arrived? Advertising Pays They were from the country. That was plain to any person with an observant eye.

They were from the country. That was plain to any person with an observant eye. He wore a black serge suit, pressed stiff on the edges, patent leather boots, a straight-up collar, and O! horrors a red bow tie. His derby hat was last season's style.

He wasn't just the kind of togethery we see sauntering up and down King street on a fine summer afternoon. But aside from their garb, which would proclaim to a casual observer that they didn't come from Fairville, the way they meandered through the streets would have been enough to allow one to ask "How 's things on the farm?"

Hand in hand they strolled along, wondering at the flow of traffic, automobiles, street cars and other vehicles, and "rubbering into the shop-windows and at the roof-tops sometimes. This it was that they were spied by a watchful caddy, eager for a fare, and going up to the young swain, he said "You're taking your girl to the exhibition, aren't you?"

Instantly there came a change over the young farmer. "Come on Lizzie," he whispered, "Let's get on out of this." And then when they were a safe distance from the caddy, he said "Now, how d'ye 'spose he knew we wuz goin' to the fair? 'I dunno, Henry," she replied, "Praps, he's one o' them mind-readers off the Pike."

What He Was Called The opening of the schools bring the usual crop of first-day stories. In one of the primary classes a youngster turned up without his permit, but was allowed to stay by the teacher, who promptly undertook to secure his name for the register. The last name was given without any trouble, but then the hitch came.

"What is your Christian name?" she asked. A blank look was the only answer. "Well, what does your father call you?" was the next attempt. "He calls me son."

Not a bit non-plussed, the teacher returned to the charge. "What does your mother call you?" she asked. "Mamma calls me boy," was all the information she got. One more trial. "But what does your mother call you when you are out of doors and she wants you?"

"She calls me in." And the teacher gave it up as a bad job. MABEL PETERS MEMORIAL Editor Evening Times-Star:—

Sir:—While one might think the last word had been said in appreciation of the life and work of the late Miss Mabel Peters, I feel that half has not been told, as I recall the supreme efforts she made the first day of canvassing for the supervised playgrounds, and after hours of work had not received one subscription.

Discouraged, but not dismayed, she was greatly cheered by a donation of one dollar. I want to say just here that Miss Alice Ketchum donated the first dollar to supervised playgrounds in St. John. Our loss in the calling away of Mabel Peters, who can measure it? But she has left a monument in her work that will live, and unborn generations will rise and bless her.

A fitting memorial would be to call the Fort Howe Park playground the Mabel Peters Memorial. I have written Mr. J. B. Harkin concerning the matter. FRANCES S. BELL. 49 King Square, Sept. 8.

PATRIOTIC FUND

Matter of Merging With Canadian Organization Not Yet Settled—Further Contributions

Very little business of importance was transacted this morning at the meeting of the executive of the Soldiers' and Families' Patriotic Fund Committee. Lady Tilley and Mrs. G. F. Smith, in behalf of the Soldiers' Wives' League, asked that their organization be recognized by the committee in connection with the patriotic work now being done by them.

On motion of Mayor Frink the request was granted. Senator Thorne moved the following resolution, which carried:—That a committee of nine, with power to add, be appointed for the following purposes: To obtain information and make recommendations to this committee as to the advisability of merging the association with the Canadian Patriotic Fund, or of organizing a separate provincial corporate body for the province.

The following members were appointed: Mayor Frink, E. A. Schofield, A. P. Barnhill, C. B. Allan, J. F. Robertson, G. S. Mayer, Com. Wierman, Hon. J. E. Wilson and J. M. Robinson. Senator Daniel and C. B. Allan both spoke strongly in favor of merging the fund with the Canadian fund. The committee will meet this afternoon and report at Friday's meeting.

Commissioner Russell, the first named on the relief committee, retired, and his place was filled by the appointment of M. E. Agar. Lieut. Governor Wood referred to the work being done in connection with the organization of the province and read a draft of a letter he was sending out. The meeting adjourned until Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

HERE ARRANGING FOR NEW BRUNSWICK'S GIFT OF POTATOES TO ENGLAND

The arrangements preliminary to the shipping of New Brunswick's 100,000 bushels of potatoes to England, as her war gift to the Motherland, are being made now. J. B. Daggett, provincial secretary of agriculture, arrived in the city this morning from Fredericton, to consult local people in regard to transportation, warehouse accommodation, and other matters.

Mr. Daggett said he did not anticipate any trouble in securing the desired quantity, but before they were purchased it was necessary to arrange for their shipment. The department had as yet had no advice from the imperial authorities as to what point they desired the shipment to be made. He thought the potatoes would be handled at St. John. Mr. Daggett will report upon his part of the work here, to the minister of agriculture in Fredericton tomorrow.
