SALE OF WOOL BROUGHT THEM BEFORE COURT
Magistrate Hears Evidence Regarding the Transaction—Sale Followed Theft From Local Warehouse.

Harry Hayes, senior, and Harry Hayes, junior, of the Marsh road, were before Magistrate Ritchie this morning on a charge arising from the sale of wool by the prisoners to James W. Willis of Golden Grove for use in his wool mill. A large quantity of wool has been taken from Kimball & Co., Marsh road, and the police are trying to connect the two matters of the sale and the theft. Squire Willis gave testimony this morning. He said that he met the elder defendant on the Marsh road driving a team full of wool and, on seeing it, he said he would give him ninety cents a pound for the washed and sixty-five for the unwashed if it was all like that he had seen. The defendant, he said, accepted and he told him to drive the load to the mill, where his brother would weigh it and pay him.
"Did he say where he got the wool?" asked his honor.
"No, sir," was the answer.
"I never asked him," said Mr. Willis. "He took the wool to my brother who gave him an order on Vassie & Co. in my name. They would not accept this as it was not in my writing and so when I met him later in Union street I took back the order and gave him a check for the amount, $205.77. This was on Jan. 18. On Feb. 10 I paid him $289.25, and yesterday I made two payments for wool, one of $470.15 and one for $70.30." The case was postponed until Friday morning.
Two prisoners, charged with dishonesty, were before the magistrate this morning. One was charged with obtaining money by false pretences on the street by Constable Connor, and the other was arrested in Haymarket square.

DEMONSTRATION OF HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE

Provincial Government to Co-operate with Housewives' League in Course of Free Lectures

In response to the efforts of the Women's Institute Division in the city and the officers of the Housewives' League, including Mrs. J. W. Lawlor and Mrs. Richard Hooper, the Department of Agriculture of New Brunswick has arranged for a series of ten lectures to be given here in the manner of public demonstrations. On March 12 it has been agreed to send a special staff of lecturers here who will instruct the women of the city in household science. There are five subjects in the course, which lasts ten days, and they are as follows: (1) Home nursing and first aid, given by one lecturer; (2) Theoretical and practical cooking, also one lecturer; (3) Personal talks to mothers and girls, given by a trained nurse; (4) Millinery, with two instructors; and (5) Dressmaking, where there will also be two instructors. The cooking demonstration will be held for three hours each day and it is expected will be the most popular course given. The lectures, however, are taken by experts and should be of great benefit to the busy housewives of St. John. As yet, however, no place in which to hold the course of lectures, which are absolutely free, has been found for some time. The Housewives' League has been for some time desirous of securing a permanent place in which to hold demonstrations, but as yet no such place has been found. It is hoped that the government will grant them one in the future, and meanwhile, some suitable building must be discovered in which all may have a chance to benefit by the free demonstrations.

EVIDENTLY WAS QUITE SOME GAME

Married and Single Men of McAvity's Water Street Establishment in Stirring Contest on the Bowling Alleys

"The conquering hero returns in his glory." These were the words "Big Chief Myers" of the married men's team used to McAvity's Water street store was heard to utter on his way home last night after his team had succeeded in defeating the single men by a majority of seventeen pins on the Victoria alleys. It was some game, and had William "Doc" Winchester had more roots with him, the game might have ended in the single men's favor. Never before in the history of the game were such curves and shots displayed as shown by Myers, while Markham of the single men used his curves to perfection. Jimmy Letney was there in the pinches and proved himself a capable anchor man. Hanna was seen coming up the street with his opponents, which was alleged to account for his "casting up." Crickshanks and McAvity were both in good form but had it not been for "Pat" Killen, the coach of the team, the "glory" would have been sung by Crickle who, as anchor man for the single boys, bowled a good game. Capson and Daye were not up to their usual form, while Beveridge showed some signs of nervousness. Altogether it was some game, enjoyed by all, spectators and bowlers alike. The large auditorium was packed with the "rooters" of both teams and much interest to the stadium prevailed.
The following is the summary of the game:
Married Men—
Myers 88 78 70 281
Crickshanks 65 72 64 201
Crickle 71 73 214
Hanna 77 62 98 187
Letney 74 68 66 228
Total 374 381 351 1056
Single Men—
Capson 87 87 68 162
Beveridge 60 66 77 203
Crickshanks 65 66 79 200
Markham 64 72 81 217
Crickle 71 72 74 217
Total 357 368 379 1099
Notes of the Games.
"Doc" Winchester was there as a royal rooter. His cheering kept the game lively.
Paddy Killen proved himself a staunch friend of the married men. His cheering was equal to the "Doctor's".
The question is "Who won the chocolates?"
Well, if the single boys had some more loyal supporters the result might have been different.
Who did the "booby" prize go?
Hard luck stories are in order today.
