EXTENSION OF CAR LINE COMES UP TOMORROW

Utilities Board to Deal With East Saint John Petition

WANT SERVICE OUT TO LEE'S CORNER

Two Up River Matters Also on Schedule for This Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the New Brunswick Board of Public Utilities will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. Several important matters are to come before the board and it is expected the entire day will be taken up hearing them.

Street Railway Matter.

The application of the residents of East Saint John for the extension of the street car lines to Lee's Corner will probably be the first matter dealt with. At the last meeting a petition, signed by residents of that section, was presented asking that the board issue an order compelling the New Brunswick Power Company to carry out an agreement declared entered into when the rails were laid in Simonds to extend to Lee's. The jurisdiction of the board was questioned by the legal representative of the Power Company but the board decided that it had jurisdiction and set tomorrow for the hearing. The East Saint John residents will probably be represented by W. A. Ross and the company by Dr. F. R. Taylor.

Up River Cases.

Another matter to come up is the application of Charles W. Lewis to the board for an order to compel the Andover and Perth lighting district to furnish him with current. Mr. Lewis first made application to the courts for this order but was referred by the Supreme Court of Canada to the Public Utilities Board. The board will also receive the report and recommendations of S. H. Midland, the expert employed by it, on the rates to be approved for electric current for Woodstock and surrounding districts. The secretary of the board, E. S. Carter, said this morning that unless the act governing the board is gotten abroad the meetings were held on the last Wednesday of the month and some had thought the meeting this month was on April 21, but this was not the fact.

TO RESUME PAVING WHEN FROST LEAVES

Councillor John O'Brien Speaks of Lancaster Plans For Coming Summer.

Councillor John O'Brien said this morning that work on the paving programme in Lancaster will be gone on with just as soon as the frost was out of the ground, and it will be pushed along to completion as rapidly as possible. The work to be done this year included the area from the highway bridge to City Line, by way of Prince street, and from Orange street to Moore's Hill. Of the work to be done this year, the councillor said that portion in the front and rear of the Military Hospital would be paid for by the Federal government and this would amount to about $15,000. He said that altogether the councillors had been able to secure about $62,000 toward the cost of the pavements. In addition to what portion of the work which had been paid for by the Provincial Department of Public Works. Of this $2,000, the sum of $7,000 would be paid by the C. P. R. in installments of $2,500 each year for 15 years.

BOTH ARE WARNED

Two Men in Heatedly Contested Case Before the Police Magistrate.

"Apparently, there is more than one colored gentleman to this woodpile," remarked Magistrate Henderson in dismissing a case of assault in the police court this morning. Frank Kennedy, complainant, swore on the stand that John A. Wright, also colored, called him bad names last evening in an alleyway off Pond street near their homes and then punched him on the jaw, while Mr. Wright followed him to the witness-box with a story directly opposite in point of fact. The defendant said Kennedy was drinking and that both fell over woodpile in their clenching. Kennedy countered with a declaration there was no woodpile where the fracas occurred. Out of the maze of charges and counter-charges, threats and comment, all given rather heatedly, His Honor adjudged that both were at fault and let the matter end with a warning. "I came here to tell the truth, and if you want to carry this further, I'm ready," was the complainant's parting shot from the court room doorway to his colored brother.

As Hiram Sees It

"I hear the women was fatter'n' you last night," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter. "As far as I kin hear they said you was a great feller altogether." "What else could they say?" demanded the reporter. "Oh—you got the swelled head, hev you?" queried Hiram. "Think you're a great feller yourself—do you?" "Well," said the reporter modestly, "there are only the Prince of Wales and myself and a few more of us left." "As far as the Prince goes," said Hiram—"he's all right. But for critter like you to put on airs is like him as a brand from the burnin' when some of my hens was in his coop an' I gather," said the reporter, "that I have failed to impress you favorably." "That's a mild way of puttin' it," said Hiram. "You're gittin' stuck up. I s'pose you'd turn up your nose on a mess of pancakes now." "Hiram," said the reporter, "you do me a great wrong. Where are the pancakes?"

SEIZED LIQUOR STOCKS TAKEN TO WAREHOUSE

Interested People Watch Transfer of Lots Found at Mispec

FAMILIAR NAMES ARE READ AGAIN

Second Haul Is Made by Revenue Officers at Mispec.

Interested citizens watched the prohibition and revenue officers as they were transferring the liquor seized at Mispec from temporary storage to the bonded warehouse in Nelson street. The first seizure of contraband was made by prohibition officers in Mispec Cove on Sunday night, when about $24,000 worth was taken. A second was made by revenue officers at Mispec Point yesterday, when $3,000 worth was found and brought to the city. The seizure yesterday was made by Customs Officers J. L. Armstrong, Fred Nice and W. P. Dawes, and 30 cases containing bottles of whiskey and gin and nine kegs of rum were found in the bushes at Mispec Point.

Names Once Familiar.

Many brands were represented in the two lots of liquor, and people in the streets showed a great interest in reading the names on the cases and speculating on what the contents might be like. The liquor will be stored in the bonded warehouse until the authorities at Ottawa decide upon the method of disposal.

It was said yesterday that the officers concerned in the seizure would get 25 per cent. of the liquor's value as prize money, but preventive officers said this morning that if there was prize money it would not be available for some time, and they were not worrying about what they would receive.

It was said this morning that Mispec Cove had been the scene of much activity for smugglers and that preventive officers had been keeping a watch on the place, but nothing had been found until Sunday. It was thought that the smugglers had become bold through their former successes and had taken longer chance than usual on Sunday with a large shipment. The owners of the liquor have not been discovered and it was not known this morning whether any court proceedings would result from the seizures.

MOOSEPATH PARK IS BOUGHT BY BISHOP

Nothing Given Out as to Use of Property But Rumor Says Church There.

His Lordship Bishop E. A. LeBlanc today confirmed a report that he had purchased Moosepath Park from the Saint John Driving Club through Paul G. Quinn, attorney. There have been reports in circulation regarding the use to which the property will be put, but nothing has as to the plans in view has been given out, and rumor is that His Lordship contemplates erecting a church there, with readjustment of parishes affecting East Saint John, Silver Falls and Loch Lomond districts. The transfer of the property has been filed in the registry office.

NO CASE IS READY IN CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Crockett May Put All Jury Matters Over to Next Circuit.

Circuit Court resumed its sittings this morning with Mr. Justice Crockett presiding. The case of Gilmour vs. Boddy was to have been tried today, but counsel for the defendant announced that a necessary and material witness was absent from the city and the case was, by agreement, set over until the next term. Several of the other jury cases on the docket were called but for various reasons it was found impossible to proceed with any. Judge Crockett set the hearing of the case of Raimie vs. Fairweather for tomorrow morning at 10:30, and announced that, if none of the jury cases were ready for trial then, he would dismiss the jury and put the entire docket over until the next circuit.
