

ticular the associating of the Churches, as not essential to the progress of the Gospel, and thus wound and grieve their poor Brethren. Paul hastened by all means to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost; and the Messengers of the Apostolic Churches were nobly engaged, striving together for the union and fellowship of the Churches; and Brethren, should we not strive for the same union; and what way so likely to obtain it, as to make the holy Scriptures the man of our counsel. Surely the small expence attending it can be no objection in the way.
 The satisfaction of meeting the Sister Churches once in every year by their Elders, Messengers and Letters, is a pleasure surpassing all the trouble and expence attending it, especially as it is connected with the honor of God, and the advancement of his glorious cause, which lies nearer the heart of a real disciple of Christ than all things besides.
 Dearly beloved Brethren, has not God begun to visit us with his rod? Does not the Holy Jesus say to his Churches in Nova-Scotia and New-Brunswick, "As many as I love I rebuke and chasten." Be zealous therefore and repent. The present calamities arise
